Pennsylvania Firm Acquires Control of FWD Corporation

Mount Clemens Industries Will Continue Clintonville Operations

CLINTONVILLE—Mount Clemens Industries Inc., Bala-Cynwyd, Pa., has acquired controlling interest in FWD Corp., Clintonville, producer of heavy duty vehicles for industry and government and ground support equipment for aircraft and missiles.

The sale was announced in Clintonville Tuesday by Samuel R. Penneys, president of Mount Clemens, and L. A. DePols, president of FWD.

The acquisition was effected by the purchase of 151,000 of FWD's 300,000 outstanding common shares. The block of stock was purchased from FWD director George E. Mallinckrodt, St. Louis, Mo.

Mount Clemens is a producer of components and metal parts for the automotive industry and metallic fasteners of various types.

Operate in Clintonville
Penneys said at a luncheon Tuesday at Hotel Marston, Clintonville, that it is the aim of Mount Clemens Industries to operate the FWD plant in Clintonville. The sales and business operations of the plant will be continued without major changes, he said, and on-the-spot management will remain with the people in Clintonville.

If necessary, the physical plant at Clintonville will be expanded, he said, but it is capable of greater capacity with no major expansion at the present time. Plans have been made for expansion of

U. S. Helicopters Attack Guerrilla Posts in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Four U.S. Army escort helicopters poured rocket and machinegun fire into a concentration of Communist guerrillas Tuesday, apparently with deadly effect.

The helicopter, recently sent from the United States, are designed to help neutralize the increasing Viet Cong guerrilla ground fire that has downed at least two planes in two days with the loss of three Americans.

The four heavily armed HU-1A helicopters were accompanying lightly armed helicopters bringing out a battalion of Vietnamese soldiers 55 miles northwest of Saigon.

The Vietnamese had been landed to protect a U. S. helicopter forced down by mechanical trouble. It was necessary to destroy the helicopter, and lurking Viet Cong opened fire as the helicopters began lifting out the Vietnamese.

U. S. Speeds Effort At High-Altitude Shot in Pacific

HONOLULU (AP)—The United States is wasting no time trying to redeem its slumping nuclear prestige by scheduling another high-altitude shot in the Pacific this weekend—just four days after the latest flop.

A low-yield nuclear device with a punch of less than 20,000 tons of TNT is set to be touched off at an expected height of 20 to 30 miles near Johnston Island.

As in previous tests, it will be carried aloft by a missile. But this time the vehicle probably won't be a Thor, the cause of four previous failures in the troubled 1962 Pacific nuclear series.

Indications were a specially constructed booster utilizing the motor from a surface-to-surface Sergeant missile would loft the payload to its firing altitude.

12 Marooned Islanders Tell How They Survived

SUVA, Fiji Islands (AP)—Shipwrecked for 11 weeks on a South Sea reef, 12 Tonga islanders died of death and the sea by living on water distilled from the ocean and by catching fish and crabs.

And when a New Zealand Air Force flying boat came out of the night Monday and dropped flares, it was as if everything in their weak, dehydrated bodies came alive again, a survivor said today.

Lived Through Ordeal
The story of survival came from Veetutu Pahlulu and Fine Feauki, two of the Tongans who lived through the ordeal that took the lives of five of the 12 men.

The Tongans set out in a yacht last summer from Tongatapu to Ata Island, in the Tonga Islands east of the Rikis.

Storm winds blew them far off course. On July 7 the wind bore them down on Minerva Reef, 300 miles west of Ata and well off the shipping lanes.

"The yacht broke up quickly," said Feauki, "and we were on the open reef all night. It was like a dream when light came.

President Calls Tax Incentives Start in Over-All Revision

Proposes to Make Further Recommendations to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has signed into law a tax revision bill that carries a $1-billion incentive to businesses that modernize.

The bill, Kennedy said in a statement accompanying Tuesday's signing, "makes a good start on bringing our tax structure up to date and provides a favorable context for the over-all tax reform program I intend to propose to the next Congress."

Meanwhile, he said, the bill "will stimulate the economy and provide a greater measure of fairness in our tax system."

Although Congress turned down the President's proposal for setting up a system of withholding taxes on interest and dividend income, Kennedy said the requirements it established for reporting such income and interest would help improve compliance with tax laws.

Reports to Treasury
The Treasury estimates it is now losing about $1 billion a year in revenue because taxpayers fail to report all the dividends and interest they receive.

Corporations now will be required to report to the Treasury and to the recipient all dividend payments totaling more than $10 a year. Savings institutions will have to do the same for interest payments.

The provision for an investment tax credit and newly revised guidelines for depreciation of assets, Kennedy said, "will provide added stimulus to investment in machinery and equipment and give American firms tax treatment which compares favorably with their competitors in world markets."

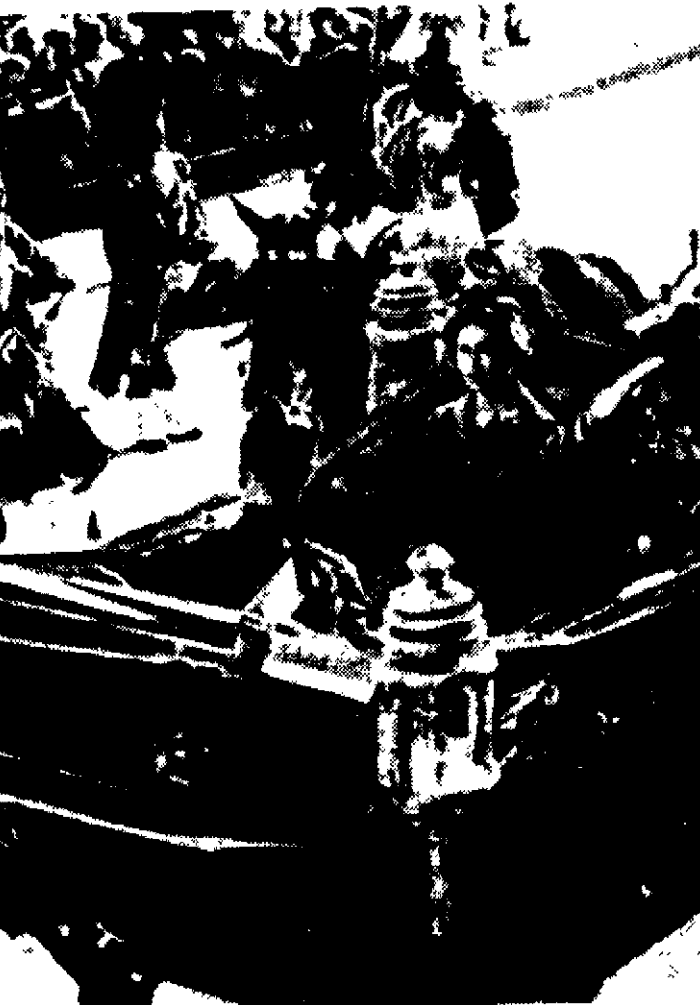

The investment credit of up to 7 per cent on purchases of machinery and equipment is the major revenue law change Kennedy

'Ella's' Course Shifts to North

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tropical storm Ella, whirling 30 miles east of Fort Pierce, Fla., turned slightly toward the north today and weathermen predicted the storm would reach hurricane force before dark.

The storm, fifth of the season, was blowing 70 miles an hour near the center with gales reaching out 350 miles to the north and 85 miles to the south.

The Weather Bureau forecast winds and seas would increase over the South Atlantic coast today.

2 Congressmen Face Charges Of Conspiracy

Grand Jury Says They Tried to Delay, Quash Mail Fraud Case

BALTIMORE (AP)—Two congressmen, indicted by a federal grand jury on conspiracy and conflict-of-interest charges have expressed assurance they will be vindicated.

Reps. Thomas F. Johnson, D-Md., and Frank W. Boykin, D-Ala., said they were shocked at the indictments handed down Tuesday, and expressed their desire for a speedy trial.

The jury charged they received compensation for trying to persuade the Department of Justice to postpone the mail fraud trial of J. Kenneth Edlin, 64, of Miami, Fla., and attempting ultimately to have the charges dropped.

Edlin pleaded no contest to the charges, made in connection with the operation of the First Colony Savings and Loan Association in Maryland, and was sentenced last April to six months in jail. He also was fined $8,000. Edlin was released last Wednesday from federal prison.

Johnson issued a statement Tuesday night. "I was deeply shocked and amazed by the charges made against me and I am positive that I will be completely vindicated," he said.

"I believe every fair-minded person will certainly regard it as a strange coincidence that such baseless charges should be

Schroeder Says 'Very Good And Complete Agreement' Reached at Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder discussed the question of Berlin with President Kennedy today and reported they reached "very good and complete agreement."

Leaving a 90-minute conference with Kennedy, the West German minister told newsmen that as a result of three days of talks with U. S. officials, "We find ourselves in agreement on the assessment of the Berlin situation and on the methods to be applied to meet the situation."

His talk with Kennedy, he said, "completes my conversations in Washington."

Kennedy accompanied his guest to the White House lobby, then, seeing the unusually large crowd of reporters, withdrew with a smile.

Schroeder, who appeared to be relaxed, said his visit served the purpose "to prepare the visit the chancellor (Konrad Adenauer) will make here upon the invitation of your president." Adenauer is due Nov. 7. Schroeder will return here with him.

Then, Schroeder added, "we will have another opportunity to review our plans."

Schroeder declined to say specifically what subjects were discussed with Kennedy. He did say, in response to a question, that "the time was too short" to go into the problem of the Common market.

Schroeder is understood to have warned administration officials that the East German regime, with Russian backing, may try to impose new control over civilian traffic moving into Berlin from West Germany.

Schroeder, here since Sunday, is seeking allied support for rejection of such a move. It is not yet clear what retaliatory action West Germany and its

Second Disappearance

Missing Man Sought; So Is Wife's Fortune

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A 78-year-old man absent for 40 of 47 years of married life has vanished again, according to police—this time with $100,000 worth of stocks belonging to his wife who made investments from her pay as a dressmaker.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation and police in Canada and the United States were asked Tuesday to join in the search for Arthur E. Williams, who disappeared the first time in 1918 after four years of marriage. He has been charged with forging the signature on a $4,878 check issued to his wife by a brokerage firm.

"He was a real wheeler and dealer," said Williams' son, Arthur, 45, of Kirkwood, Mo. "He'd been something of a hero during the London blitz, he told us. He apparently made his living writing travelogue material."

The son said that as much as $100,000 in securities may have been cashed.

Williams told police his father had been reported dead in 1924, but that in 1958 letters from England and then Canada began to arrive telling of his desire to return to his wife, Mrs. Clara Williams, 85. The son said Mrs. Williams took her husband back three years ago without asking for explanations.

Detective George Katsekis said Mrs. Williams returned from a trip Sept. 29, found her husband gone and his closet and safety deposit box cleaned out.

The last heard from Williams was on Oct. 1 when Mrs. Williams received a letter postmarked Niagara Falls, Ont., in which Williams said he "had done nothing wrong."

Details of the case still are being investigated by a lawyer and document examiner hired by the son, police and the First Wisconsin National Bank which filed the complaint resulting in the warrant.

"I've never seen a case like this," said Stanley E. Bennett, cashier for the bank. "We want to get him back to unravel it because there are other banks involved."

Democrats Increase Tempo of Campaign

Kennedy's Political Visit to Wisconsin Saturday Is Shot In Arm to Campaign Activities

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The tempo of planning for President Kennedy's political visit to Wisconsin has increased, as has the campaigning of Democratic candidates in the election now less than three weeks away.

As the President's jet plane made a trial run over Milwaukee's Mitchell Field Tuesday, Democratic Sen. William Proxmire announced an expanded tour in behalf of nominees for the House of Representatives.

Also joining the Democratic campaign in recent days has been a group of Milwaukee attorneys and state lawmakers plugging for John Reynolds, the candidate for governor.

40 Minute Stop

President Kennedy will be in the state Saturday, making a 40 minute stop and speaking from a platform to be erected at Milwaukee's airport.

Patrick Lucey of Madison, state Democratic chairman, said he anticipated a crowd possibly as large as 15,000, or as low as 8,000. Lucey said the Reynolds would introduce Gov. Gaylord Nelson, the Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, who would introduce the President.

In campaigning Tuesday night Philip Kuehn, Republican candidate for governor, said that if elected he will seek advice from the men he defeated in winning the nomination. They are Warren Knowles, who had against Kuehn for endorsement by the GOP state convention, and Wilbur Reink, loser in the September primary.

Wants Advice

"I look forward to the opportunity to have their advice," Kuehn said in a Baraboo address, "so that the state can be presented with the best ideas the three of us have."

Reynolds told a Dane County Democratic meeting Tuesday night that "all decent Americans suffer a deep sense of shame over the disgraceful conduct of Mississippi Gov. Barnett in defying the courts and the U.S. Constitution and permitting bloodshed and violence to erupt in the Meredith case."

He said almost as shocking was the "public support Barnett received from Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater." Reynolds added "Because Wisconsin voters on Nov. 6 will find on their ballots the name of a Republican candidate for governor who says he is proud to be called Barry Goldwater Jr., I think it is entirely fitting for citizens to demand of Mr. Kuehn whether he stands with his fellow right-winger in endorsing the actions of Gov. Barnett."

Political Wars Take Kennedy To Connecticut

President May be Forced Into an Attack on Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy dashes back to the political wars today, and the big question is whether he will decide to shoot it out verbally with his predecessor Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Kennedy was scheduled to leave in mid-afternoon for Connecticut, where he will say kind words for his former welfare secretary, Abraham Ribicoff, who is running for the Senate.

Of far more interest is this: Will there be unkind words of reply to Eisenhower? The former president, in a tone unusually bitter for him, said Kennedy has what he called "a dreary foreign policy."

"Too Sad"

"Too sad to talk about," Eisenhower said in a Boston speech Monday night.

Miffed at Kennedy's criticisms of his Republican administration, Eisenhower said:

"I doubt that anyone can persuade you that in the past 21 months there has been anything constructive on foreign relations to equal any part of that eight-year (Republican) record."

Kennedy has been exceptionally careful never to tangle with Eisenhower. Throughout the 1960 campaign he bore down on Republicans in general and Richard M. Nixon, the GOP candidate in particular.

Eisenhower escaped direct criticism — and even drew some praise.

Since Kennedy won without attacking Eisenhower personally, he will be reluctant to change tactics now.

No. 1 Republican

But with Eisenhower acting increasingly like the No. 1 Republican spokesman, Kennedy may be sorely tempted. Certainly he may be forced to make a more spirited defense of his foreign policies, which he has skipped over lightly during this drive to elect more Democrats to Congress.

Connecticut is thought to offer fertile soil for Kennedy's efforts.

Democrats now hold four of the six House seats and hope they can pick up another.

Ribicoff, who quit Kennedy's cabinet to make this race, is matched against Rep. Horace Seely-Brown Jr., while Gov. John D. Dempsey is defending his seat against Republican John Alsup.

Kennedy's plans called for speeches in Bridgeport, Waterbury and New Haven.

He's due back in the White House tonight.

New Foreign Aid Director Being Sought

White House Not Pleased With Work Of Fowler Hamilton

WASHINGTON (AP)—White House aides have begun a search for a new administrator for the nation's $4.4-billion-a-year foreign aid program.

They are not happy with the way Fowler Hamilton, the former New York banker who heads the Agency for International Development, has been running the show.

They have not yet found a new man, but one of the key names mentioned in early exploratory talks has been that of 43-year-old David Bell, now the Budget Bureau director.

Good Idea?

"We don't know if we could get Bell," said one presidential assistant, "or even if it would be a good idea to move him from the Budget Bureau."

"But he's the kind of man we want and if it isn't him we hope we can find somebody like him."

The present plan is to delay the change until after the November elections to avoid stirring up trouble.

As now conceived, the plan calls for a change in from three weeks to a month.

Hamilton apparently has not been told of the impending change but has heard rumors. He says he has no intention of resigning.

Hamilton was brought in to give foreign aid a "new look," but the same old troubles developed in Congress this year when appropriations came up.

If Bell or a man like him should be chosen it would represent a basic change in approach. Almost all foreign aid administrators, so far, regardless of the administration in which they have functioned, have been internationally oriented businessmen.

Firms Threaten Competitors Hint 'Muscle Tactics' In Rubbish Collections

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A complaint alleging threats of "physical harm" for competitors was filed Tuesday, accusing eight Elmer J. Lauer, Clarence Mantei, and Fred Mieczek, and Howard Dore of Franklin and Stanley Ruminski of West Allis Milwaukee County.

Named in the complaint were seven Milwaukee firms and one from Chicago and 11 Milwaukee County men and six Chicago area residents. All individuals were described as officials or employees of rubbish collection or disposal firms.

The action was filed on behalf of the state by Atty. Gen. John Reynolds. It seeks damages of $250,000 and injunctions to prevent the alleged conspiracy to monopolize trade and injure competitors.

"Physical Harm"

The complaint, filed in Circuit Court, also contends that the owners of competing businesses and their families were threatened with "physical harm," and he owners with destruction of their property and equipment.

Corporate defendants are Acme Disposal Service, Inc.; Ace Sanitation Service, Inc.; Trash Collections, Inc.; Best Disposal Company, Inc.; Doman, Inc.; Land-Fill, Inc.; and Lakeland Sand and Gravel Co., all of Milwaukee, and Acme Disposal Corp., of Chicago. Milwaukeeans named in the action were James J. Joseph A. and Gust Magestro, Dominic, and Jack Mandella.

4 Soviet Ships in Pacific Serving Triple Purpose

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Soviet ships in the Pacific are used both for reporting impact of Soviet test missile firings into that area and for monitoring space vehicles passing overhead, Pentagon sources said today.

This obviously is in addition to the surveillance they maintain on U.S. nuclear tests in the Johnston Island area.

Data on the ships—the Sibir, Suchan, Sakhalin and Chukotka—indicates they are converted from the Donbass-class cargo ships built in Poland. The conversions were completed in 1959 and the ships sent to the Pacific over the northern route, presumably during the summer season in the arctic when passage through ice is possible.

Each ship has an over-all length of 340 feet. The Sibir, Suchan and Sakhalin have three tracking units including a dish-shaped radar tracking antenna. The Chukotka, however, does not show this type of device.

All have large parabolic mesh antennas for long-range use and other antennas probably used for receiving signals from space vehicles. Each has a helicopter platform and hangar near the stern.

Local Autonomy Vs. Status Quo

Struggle for Less Centralization Big Issue at 2nd Vatican Council

BY DAVE MEADE
Chicago Daily News Service

VATICAN CITY — There's a struggle going on here between the "integralists" and the bishops who want more local autonomy.

The integralists, or centralists, are fighting for greater centralization — at least the status quo — of ecclesiastical power in the Vatican and the Italian-dominated Roman Curia.

Many of the bishops are trying to decentralize in a limited way, the Roman Catholic Church. They want more authority and responsibility for certain decisions in local dioceses around the world.

You don't get it from the official Vatican Daily, Osservatore Romano, but this is part of the story behind the current election of members of the important 10 working commissions of the Second Vatican Council.

Jockeying

There has been a jockeying for position by the council fathers during the first week of what may turn out to be the church's most historic meeting in centuries.

The outcome won't be known for several days. Right now it looks like the council is up for grabs.

Pope John XXIII, responsible leaders insist, has guaranteed full freedom to the council fathers. They are the approximately 2,500 cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, abbots and superiors of religious orders who have come here from every part of the earth.

As one priest put it, "He's not going to meddle. It's their dog fight."

This is what has happened so far.

Public Session

The council opened last Thursday with a traditional, colorful and solemn liturgical ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica. This was the first public session.

On Saturday, the fathers again gathered in St. Peter's for their first general congregation, or general assembly, to elect 160 of their group to commission membership. They are choosing 16 for each of the 10 bodies that will function something like the powerful congressional committees of the U.S. House and Senate.

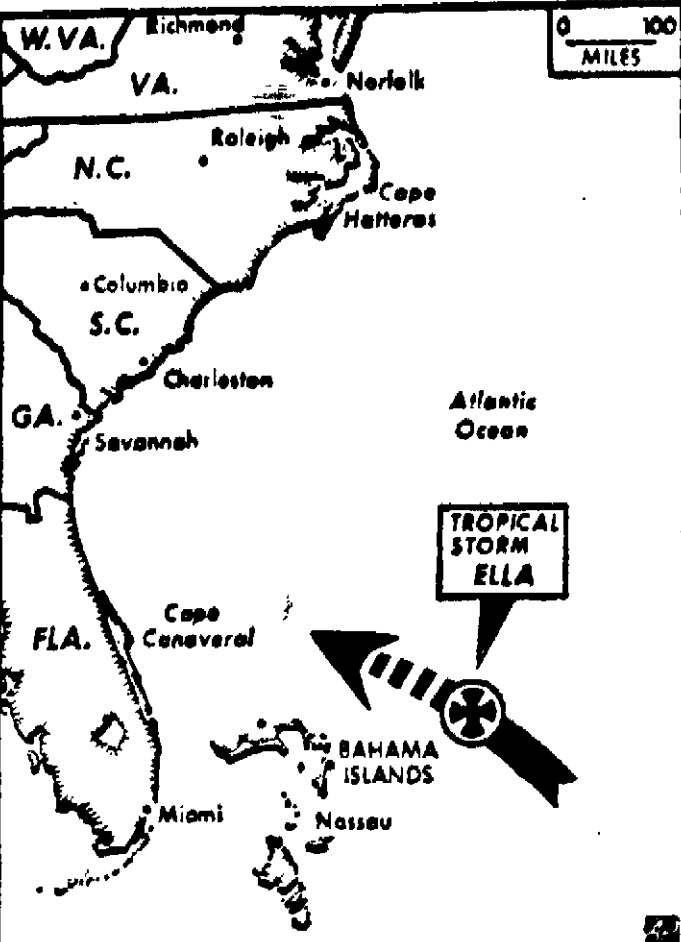

These groups of 25 — the Pope will name eight additional members and already has appointed their respective cardinal — presidents — will draft laws and decrees for consideration by the general assembly on far-reaching themes affecting bishops, Catholic laity, the liturgy, missions, religious liberty, the ecumenical movement, and the like.

The Saturday meeting lasted less than an hour. It was adjourned after a faction of primarily Northern European cardinals protested that the fathers needed more time to consult with each other about who would be most qualified for election to the commissions.

This was a victory for those cardinals and bishops who didn't want any hint of spoon feeding by the entrenched integralists in the election procedure.

Regional caucuses were held over the weekend. Lists of candidates were drawn up by such episcopal gatherings from different areas of the world. One group, for instance, included the fathers from Germany, France, Holland, Austria and Switzerland.

The U.S. group apparently did not submit a slate of candidates, however.

GI Bill Extended For Berlin Callup Vets

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed a bill Tuesday preserving the educational rights of Korean war veterans who were called to active duty in the Berlin crisis buildup of last year.

The measure would extend the time in which GI training or educational programs may be completed if a veteran was recalled to active duty or had his period of service involuntarily extended.

Argentina Plans Early Elections

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Argentina has been promised elections earlier than expected next year, and followers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron may be allowed to play a limited role.

Interior Minister Rodolfo Martinez said Tuesday night elections will be held next March and June instead of next October, as originally planned. He said a new government will be installed by next Oct. 12. The previous target date was May 1, 1964.

Martinez said the government will permit no return to dictatorship, but amendments will be made to the political party status law that bans Peronists and Communists from political activity.

The Winnebago Story

It was a hopeful report that the administration of Winnebago State Hospital submitted to the State Board of Public Welfare recently. This major treatment institution for mentally ill patients in this section of the state is gradually reducing its population, showing the results of the more intensive treatment program that has been permitted with the recruitment of more staff, the incorporation of new drugs and new methods into its therapeutic services, and the development of pre-admission and out-patient services.

The care and treatment of the mentally ill has become one of the hugely expensive phases of modern government operations. A survey committee recently concluded, for example, that the institutional costs of mental patients in Wisconsin, state and local, are now running above $100,000,000 yearly.

Thus we read with some interest the comment in the detailed summary of his hospital's operations filed by Supt. Belcher of Winnebago the recapitulation of the meal service costs there during the last year. More than 1,200,000 meals were served during the last fiscal year, at a cost of less than 22 cents each.

The mental hygiene bill is a huge one, indeed, and it shows no promise of lessening. But we would conclude from this food service department report from Winnebago that it is not a wasteful one.

Name of Lamar Recalls History

When President Kennedy introduced the name of Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar into his radio appeal for sanity at Oxford, Miss., he not only gave appropriate honors to one of the South's most honorable men, he touched on one of the main reasons for the troubles not only in Oxford but the entire troubled South.

Lamar, whose bones help hallow the grounds of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Oxford, was a Georgian by birth but adopted Oxford where he became a professor at Ole Miss when his father-in-law became the university's president and then went on to become the city's and state's first citizen.

Leaders of the South after the Civil War were stripped of rights and prerogatives of citizenship. Reconstruction in the hands of the radicals of the Republican party had created a southern domain made safe for the party by giving governmental leadership and power to the recently enfranchised slaves.

Ealcked at reprisals and even protection at law or at the polls, many southerners turned to outlaw tactics of the Ku Klux Klan and the drive to reconstitute the status quo of before the war became a way of life that eventually was made a major part of many families' heritage.

Taking another course were men like Lamar in Mississippi, Robert E. Lee in Virginia, Wade Hampton in South Carolina and many more of the Confederacy's foremost leaders.

These men felt that, given a chance, good will would prevail. They vowed to bear their disfranchisement patiently but not idly. One of the strengths they recognized was in the recently enfranchised and they set about to alleviate rancor and fear that remained from slave days so that eventually all people of the South could live together peacefully and profitably.

Lamar was the most effective of these men of good will. He was the first southern congressman to be allowed a seat in the House of Representatives after the war. He was the first to be seated in the Senate. He was the first southern cabinet member and he became the first southern member of the Supreme Court.

Hampton, Lee, Lamar and the rest have been called the Redeemers of the South. They were opposed on one hand by the forces of Reconstruction and on the other by the unreconstructed Southerners whose persistent efforts to regain their full powers won for them the nickname of Bourbons.

Through the efforts of the Redeemers with Lamar in their lead, the evils of the Reconstruction were halted; but, ironically, this gave the Bourbons their chance to recreate their baronies of hardfisted control with the inequalities that worked to perpetuate them.

Education was the key the Redeemers hoped to use to open the door of opportunity closed to the South. Lee became a university president and Hampton organized local educational facilities. Lamar in Congress fought his battle for education on a national stage.

As early as 1877, Lamar sought "some well-devised scheme of public education by which this newly enfranchised race may be fitted to exercise their great duties as free men and citizens and as participants in the sovereignty of Commonwealth."

During the debate in 1884 on a federal aid to education bill, Lamar said, "In my opinion this bill is a decided step toward the solution of the problem of race. . . Now the common school system has become the indispensable factor in diffusing education generally throughout the South."

While the impoverished South would become the chief benefactor of the bill, the greatest opposition to the bill came from the South and Lamar's advocacy of the assistance to the common school system won him enemies at home.

One of the loudest voices against him—as might be expected with the benefit of hindsight—came from Mississippi. When his nomination to the Supreme Court was being debated in the Senate the South sounded as it did recently when Thurgood Marshall's name was being debated and the Jackson New Mississippian newspaper strongly objected to "the extraordinarily conservative course which he had pursued at Washington, the preference which he has shown to the Grand Army of the Republic, and the tenderness with which he has dealt with the Negro Republicans from Mississippi."

President Kennedy's evoking of the name of Lamar in the face of today's neo-Bourbon stubbornness gave recognition to the historic character of the problem and the quality of the opposition.

It also reminded us of the fact that even at the nadir of the South's fortunes when the hurt of defeat was compounded by unreasonable punishment there was a man living in the South with the courage, humility and skill to recognize the wisdom of the return to due process of the law, to admit the futility of armed force—organized or otherwise—and to carry forward his contention to a degree of success that—even in retrospect—seemed impossible.

If the South could produce such a man in the depth of its fortunes, we can only hope that in the South today there must be such another.

Who Should Invest in Atomic Weapons?

Dr. Halvard M. Lange, Norway's foreign minister, denounced the French plan to build up an atomic striking force on the occasion of a state visit to France by King Olaf V of Norway. Dr. Lange had accompanied King Olaf to Paris. The king had been warmly received and was leaving Paris for Norway when Dr. Lange spoke out, detailing his disagreement between the Norwegian and French governments on western defense.

President de Gaulle has in the past declared that France must assume full responsibility for her own defense. The French have left the impression that they are not wholly satisfied with the United States' ability or willingness to defend Western Europe. The French have developed a nuclear bomb and have tested it in the Sahara Desert but recent reports have indicated that the possession of this bomb is a luxury which France can ill afford. Even though it had the funds to develop the bomb it has not yet found the means to set up an air force strong enough to deliver the bomb in defense of France should the occasion arise.

Knowing these things, Dr. Lange declared that the Western Alliance must rest on confidence among its members. He said that Norway will place her confidence in the United States' assumption of the burden and responsibility for the West's nuclear armament. Thus Norway would oppose national atomic forces in Europe.

Dr. Lange strongly supported the American position that Western Europe should assume greater shares of the burden of conventional armament and of help to underdeveloped nations. He declared that European states could not increase this burden and at the same time establish nuclear forces. Only with such confidence in each other could the European nations successfully divide the labor of defending Western Europe.

The clear logic of Dr. Lange is unassailable. It may give the French a lift to feel that they are numbered among the great nations which possess the nuclear bomb. But it is in fact a useless possession since they are unable to use it to develop a striking force sufficient to compete with either America or Russia. It is, as Dr. Lange points out, a waste of funds for each nation to set up an inefficient nuclear force and it is unwise for them to do so when the funds expended upon it are needed elsewhere. The Norwegian trust in America is not to be taken as flattery by the United States. It is purely a logical position because neither Norway nor any other country in Europe is in a position to do anything else.

The billions America has poured into its nuclear weapons and its striking force of aircraft and rockets has produced a thing beyond the financial ability of any nation in Western Europe today. But while such trust is a matter of necessity it is also a matter which Norway and most other countries of Western Europe recognize as acceptable because of American conduct in the past. It is nonsense for France to pour millions of dollars into a bomb defense contending that they are preparing to do a job which America is either unable or unwilling to do.

The Norwegian position is the correct one. The nuclear defense has already been provided for Western Europe. Those countries can depend upon it and in the meantime they would be well advised to use their funds for purposes which will advance their interests and the interests of all Western Europe.

Inflation, Not Taxes, Major Issue in Wisconsin Campaign

Editor, Post-Crescent:

As I read your paper in which you publish the speeches of many prominent people seeking political offices, I feel that you are leading your readers to believe that taxation is the principal issue or problem in our coming election. Instead of the most disastrous cloud that is hanging over our country since the Civil War 100 years ago, Inflation, the short road to communism.

As far as taxes are concerned we all know that eventually, either directly or indirectly, our taxes will be paid by our great middle class, the people that work and save and not by the idle rich and the idle poor.

Ever since F.D.R., about 25 years ago, gave the drivers seat over to John L. Lewis, in line with the labor union policies, we all have been demanding more for our services. The farmer has demanded more for his products, the laboring man more for his services, the man on relief more for holding down the rocking chair and so on. Every time the demands were met the dollar was made smaller. Twelve years ago we were told the value of the dollar had been reduced to 47 cents. I have not heard what it is now, but it surely is not any larger. Now it's only reasonable to believe that if we keep on raising prices and by so doing get the value of the dollar down to 5 or 10 cents, then what will our social security, our life insurance, our stocks and bonds etc. be worth? This is the 64 dollar question and not taxes. Yet Senator Proxmire suggested longer unemployment period for the laboring man, the N.E.O. wants higher prices for the farm products. Attorney General John Reynolds wants to pay men for a job that no longer exists and wants the people that have been and are working saving and the manufacturer to pay all the direct taxes and the loafers and spenders to pay nothing. Governor Nelson wants the taxpayer to build more fish ponds and recreational parks to induce more people to come to Wisconsin and at the same time does not want them to pay any general tax to pay for the improvement. All such maneuvers would tend to higher prices and smaller dollars.

For the last six or eight months I have been reading about two of our top paid men in our state house spending most of their time trying to land a better job, our governor and attorney general. I know that when I hired men on my farm to render a service, if I allowed them to spend most of their time looking for another job my cost of production would be too high. Further I read of some of our top officials at Washington coming to Wisconsin to tell us what great men we have in our state house. As though we don't know that our governor has for two years been quarreling with our legislature on taxpayer money and getting nowhere and that our attorney general staged a battle with our lawmakers last summer that cost the taxpayers about 300 thousand dollars and got nowhere, except to get his name before the people just before election. This kind of monkey business will not keep down inflation.

Further, I know that the people of Wisconsin are capable of picking their own leaders and do not need to import good speakers from Washington or anywhere else to influence their vote. I think it is a disgrace to allow them to come here.

It is high time that the voters of the state will give this matter careful consideration before they exercise their grand and glorious privilege, the right to vote.

Looking Backward

Too Steep for New York Herald

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Motor for Oct. 9, 1862.

When a fraction of the North becomes so devoted to slavery and so bold in utterance of sympathy with traitors as to extort a rebuke from the N. Y. Herald, it will be conceded that their loyalty will be the subject of suspicion.

Even the Herald is shocked by the grossly seditious character of the manifesto put forth by the collection of ex-Buchanan officials in Milwaukee who styled themselves a Democratic State convention. It says:

The Democratic State Convention of Wisconsin adopted a long and prosy address to the few faithful followers of the party in that State. It denounces the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, the discussion in Congress, and the Emancipation Bill.

It denies the power of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus or to arrest citizens for treason, and to suppress secession journals. And, if it had dared, it would, no doubt, have denied the right of the government to put down rebellion.

25 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, Oct. 13, 1937

Carl Rehfeldt was elected commander of Harvey Pierre Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Other officers elected were Ernest Mueller, Robert J. Olson, Harvey Kittner, Walter Bogan and Al Johnin.

Bernard Derr, Shawano, was elected president of the Men's Association at Oshkosh State Teachers College. He succeeded Donald Dornbrook, Menasha, who transferred to the University of Wisconsin that fall.

The all-school play at Freedom was the three-act comedy, "The Blue Bag." Students in the cast included Jerry McCormick, Clarence Wallace, Marion Garvey, Lillian Garvey, Welden Huss, George Schroeder, Evelyn Appleton, Wilbert Kasten, Blanche Conrad, Bonita Garvey and Jack Behling.

Board members of the Century Club in Appleton were Carl McKee, Ralph McGowan, Dan Courtney, Heber Pelkey and Asher Ellis.

Mrs. James B. Wagg, Appleton, was named auditor of the Ninth District Federation of Women's Clubs. She was the immediate past president of the Appleton Woman's Club, holding office for two terms.

10 YEARS AGO

Anne Gear was elected president of the Menasha Junior Y-Teen Club. Other officers included Fritzie Gensch, vice president, Dolores Stein, secretary, and Joan Tesch, treasurer.

Cheerleaders at Winneconne High School were sponsoring a dance to raise money for new uniforms. They included Verla Zimmerman, Peggy Kronitz, Lorraine Larsen, Key Meyer, Burdine Landwehr and Norita Crownow.

Crowned Hobo King and Queen at Little Wolf High School, Manawa, were Lee Oppen and Annette Taylor. The ceremony was part of annual homecoming festivities.

William Fondow, Appleton, received a scholarship from the Paper Twine Association at Michigan Western College. Fondow was studying pulp and paper technology at the college.

Private First class Norbert J. Theobald, route 1, Black Creek was awarded the combat infantryman badge while serving with the 25th Infantry Division in Korea.

Neither Candidate for Senate Being Entirely Candid on Medicare

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Lawyers have a rule that is sometimes called the clean hands doctrine. It means in rough terms that the man who files a complaint must be innocent of wrongdoing himself. Somehow the idea comes to mind in the contemplation of the fierce dispute between Sen. Wiley and Gov. Nelson about the issue of medical care for the aged.

The governor, hoping to defeat Wiley in the November election, has used the senior senator's vote against the national Social Security medical care bill that was defeated recently in the Congress as a kind of a theme song.

Sen. Wiley, in some of his nettled responses, has said that Wisconsin could now have its own medical care program for the needy aged if the state government of which Nelson has been the executive officer for the last four years had acted under the so-called Kerr-Mills Act of the national government adopted in 1959.

Both candidates, it may appear to the sideler, are not quite consistent in their concern for the medical care problems of the aged and infirm.

WILEY SAYS

Wiley is blaming Nelson for the failure to use the federal money grants for a state-sponsored program. He is saying in effect that the next Republican administration of the state government will make good on the Democratic governor's default.

The senator may know something that the Republican leaders of the legislature haven't said, or that the statehouse candidates have not seen fit to put into their platform. He also tends to ignore the fact that the Republicans controlled the last session of the legislature completely, and made no move to set up the state machinery for the operation of the medical care program that would have been financed in part under federal money grants made available under Kerr-Mills and now being used for such purposes in more than 20 other states of the country.

Gov. Nelson, on the other hand, speaks feelingly of the catastrophic costs of medical and hospitalization care for elderly persons of limited means. The Social Security approach would be the ideal way of providing such care for the senior citizens of the commonwealth, he is saying everywhere he goes in his campaign against the Republican incumbent senator.

Yet the plain fact, ascertainable from the record, is that such needy old folks in Wisconsin could now be eligible for such public medical benefits, if the state had acted to install the kind of program the 1959 congressional act contemplated. It could have had such a program, whatever the ultimate decision about Social Security expansion to embrace health care, if Gov. Nelson had asked the legislature to adopt it. It is scarcely conceivable that the Republican legislature would have dared to vote down such a bill if the governor had sponsored it. The legislature's excuse for not acting on its own initiative is the same explanation the governor gives for not initiating it.

The treasury was in straitened circumstances. There was no money.

IT WAS FOUND

Yet the governor and the legislature managed to find money for nearly everything else. They found money for new programs, in fact, including one to provide more outdoors recreational opportunity for Wisconsin and non-resident leisure time hobbyists. The outdoors program doubtless is worthy and needful. But it may be wondered if the state can justify new camp grounds and fishing preserves, at a time when its public leaders are beating their breasts in concern about the health care costs of the old folks, and berating each other about the failure to do something about them.

This would be a minor useful debate if the participants spoke more candidly. Sen. Wiley, like many others, is philosophically opposed to government medical programs that may lead to the governmental control of medical practice, and found the Kerr-Mills statute a convenient excuse for his opposition vote. Gov. Nelson wants such programs, and failed to push the local program because it might serve to delay acceptance of the national, across-the-board blueprint.

Strictly Personal

Hardest Job for Man Is to be Fully Human

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

The great difference between all the rest of the animal world and mankind has nothing to do with the opposable thumb, the gift of speech, or the ability to change our environment.

What is profoundly and basically different is that becoming "human beings" is not natural to us, it is a lifelong task, requiring constant diligence, practice, and sacrifice. It means surmounting ourselves.

Ortega y Gasset, one of the seminal thinkers of our time, has put it well in his long essay, "Man the Technician." He points out that "to all other entities of the universe, existence presents no problem. . . A bull, if he exists, exists as a bull."

On the contrary, "for a man to exist does not mean to exist at once as the man he is, but merely that there exists a possibility of, and an effort toward, accomplishing this. Who of us is all he should be and all he longs to be? In contrast to the rest of creation, man, in existing, has to make his existence."

What each of us calls "my life," Ortega says, is a pure task, "a thing inexorably to be made. It is not given to me as a present; I have to make it."

It is only in the light of this concept — which I believe to be a true one — that much of human behavior and human history can be understood. For most of what we call "human history" consists in the refusal to be human.

Wars, tyrannies, persecutions, corruptions — these are the traditional ways in which societies as a group resist humanization. On the personal level, we as individuals resist it by indulging in our appetites and ends in themselves, and not merely as means to a human end.

We will do anything rather than become fully human, because it is the hardest job we can imagine. Unlike the bull, who is fixed for all time in his bullishness, we have an immense capacity to rise above the biological and the appetitive; but this task frightens us, and we retreat into passion and prejudice, as the Germans under Hitler cast off a thousand years of Christianity and withdrew into the zoological slime.

Man is not a "natural" creature in the sense that all others are. His existence is problematic; he is a set of possibilities, ranging from below the bestial to nearly the angelic. Man is what he does. And his whole life is a program for action: to find those possibilities which most fully express his human condition.

History, whether in Munich or in Mississippi, reveals how mankind shrinks away from becoming human. It is easy for us to believe in God; what is hard, devilishly hard, for most people is to believe in humanity.

U. S. Cuban Policy Remains Unclear

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — What really is the policy of the Kennedy administration in relation to the Communist occupation of Cuba?

The President has not made it clear on the stump. Nor has the Department of State made it clear in its public statements.

But the Soviet government on its part has made very clear what has happened to America's historic policy known as the Monroe Doctrine. Here is a news dispatch by United Press International a few days ago from Moscow:

"The Kremlin Sunday listed Premier Fidel Castro's Cuba among the Communist nations for the first time and gave it precedence over Yugoslavia and Communist China in listing the traditional slogans for the 45th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution on Nov. 7."

Red Colony

For all practical purposes, the Soviet government has set up its system in Cuba and transformed that country into a Communist colony.

President Kennedy has made no public protest to Moscow. Nor has Congress done so. The resolution adopted by both houses merely cautions the Communists not to carry out any armed attack or military offensive against any other nation in this hemisphere.

It's apparently all right for them to keep on doing what they have been doing in Cuba. No steps are indicated to prevent the Communists from carrying on their activities in other parts of Latin America unless they try to use armed force to achieve their ends.

This has the Monroe Doctrine been scuttled. Communist activity — and even the Communist takeover of any other Latin American country — is, in effect, sanctioned today by U. S. policy. Only it must not be done by military means. Actually, the Soviets didn't openly assist in the military operations that set up the Castro regime in Cuba in the first place, but now they have supplied 5,000 military men to help Castro maintain himself in power.

U. S. Retreated
As late as April, 1961, the Kennedy administration was willing to help by military means the Cubans who tried to liberate their homeland. But after the expedition was bungled and the President at a crucial moment withheld military air support, the administration retreated still further by declaring publicly it will intervene only if Cuba attacks some other country. The Communist occupation of Cuba is, therefore, accepted by the State Department just as the Berlin "wall" was accepted.

There is, of course, an appeasement faction in this country which has a considerable influence with President Kennedy. This school of thought insists that the Monroe Doctrine isn't "international law," or that it has become outmoded because the United States has from time to time stationed troops in Southeast Asia and in Western Europe and in Korea.

But in each case the United States had taken the measures of military defense at the request of the existing governments or by an agreement of allies. The Soviet Union can contend that it is doing the same thing in Cuba. While this may satisfy Moscow's policy makers, it doesn't diminish or modify the responsibility of the United States under the Monroe Doctrine. This doctrine was recognized explicitly in the covenant of the League of Nations as international law by agreement. The covenant was ratified by most of the nations of the world, including the Soviet Union, and the Monroe Doctrine is as much a part of international law today as any regional arrangement. In fact, the charter of the United Nations explicitly recognizes regional arrangements as not in conflict with its own purposes.

Oddly enough, the joint resolution adopted recently by Congress says in its preamble:

"Whereas President James Monroe, announcing the Monroe Doctrine in 1823, declared that the United States would consider any attempt on the part of European powers 'to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety."

Military Plans

This is a reaffirmation of the words of the doctrine, but actually the main part of the resolution itself doesn't go on to implement that declaration. The subsequent paragraphs merely say that Cuba must not attack or threaten any other country. Certainly the Monroe Doctrine isn't needed to formulate any United States policy to defend itself militarily or to defend other nations in this hemisphere who seek our help.

What has actually happened is that the United States government has retreated before the world and given up that section of the Monroe Doctrine which commits this country to resist any attempt by European powers "to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere."

This means that, in the face of the Soviet occupation of a country only 90 miles away from our shores, the United States government acquiesces in such an encroachment on the Monroe Doctrine by the Soviet government. Thus, as Winston Churchill once said, surrender or unwillingness to fight when the military odds are in one's favor leads eventually to a big war in which the risks are greater and the involvement is far more dangerous. The Cuban policy of the administration is properly an issue for speakers in the current congressional campaign.

Darboy School Has Fire Drill

Record Claimed In Evacuation of School Building

DARBOY—Posters, discussions and a fire drill last week served to remind students of Holy Angels School of Fire Prevention Week.

The students set a record time for the school by evacuating the building in two minutes.

Wednesday, Oct. 17, 1962 Appleton Post-Crescent A5

The sisters of Saint Francis at the Holy Cross, two teach at the school, have begun a physical fitness program for students. The Christian Mothers Society provided financial aid. The Holy Name society will purchase other equipment for the program. Sister Ursula, principal, reported plans are being made for a program to be held in conjunction with Education Week in November. A demonstration will be given of the Good Citizenship Club by seventh and eighth graders during the week. A priest from the Blessed Sacrament Seminary, Waupaca, talked to seventh and eighth grade boys on vocations to the priesthood.

Transplanted Kidneys From Dead People Saving Lives

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—It is that two men have lived—once kidneys taken from the dead are for two years, and two for about giving a few humans a welcome a year—on gifts of kidneys from relatives or friends or fraternal no-look-alike twins.

In Boston today, a young man of about 30 is living on a kidney borrowed from a man who died 6½ months ago.

He is one of 13 persons who received kidneys from the dead during the last decade, thereby winning up to at least half a year more of life.

Another 82 men and women have received kidneys from living donors. One, getting a kidney from his identical twin brother, confident they can leap this is perfectly healthy eight years later. That was expected to succeed.

Bonn Ready to Use Force if It Is Needed

Tells U. S. Officials Troops Available to Meet Soviet Action

BY PETER LISAGOR
Chicago Daily News Service

WASHINGTON — U.S. officials have been assured that West German troops would be promptly available if Soviet actions against West Berlin should require the use of force to resist them.

This became known here amid continued efforts by administration spokesmen to alert the public to an expected Soviet squeeze against the divided German city sometime this fall.

Speculation that Berlin might be coming to a boil was heightened by a White House announcement that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will confer at his request with President Kennedy here tomorrow.

Bonn's willingness to join with Western forces, outside of NATO if necessary, is regarded here as an important element in the psychological preparations being made to meet any Soviet moves in Berlin that would threaten vital allied interests there.

The West Germans hope, of course, that in case of real trouble over Berlin, all NATO countries will stand up and be counted in their own interest. But if there is equivocation and delay because of different estimates of the situation, Bonn is reportedly quite prepared to join those willing to move immediately.

Gromyko's visit, according to informants, may be no more than the culmination of his desire, expressed to Secretary of State Dean Rusk in New York earlier this month, to talk with the president before he returns to Moscow.

U. S. authorities say they welcome Gromyko's appearance for another chat with Mr. Kennedy, who is deeply anxious to convey again to the Russians that the United States aims to protect the freedom of Berlin and that nothing can shake that determination.

Officials here believe a chief problem with the Russians is persuading them beyond any doubt of the credibility of the American position on Berlin.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev conferred in Moscow for three hours with the new U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler yesterday, and informants described this as basically a get-acquainted meeting in which Khrushchev gave no hints on Berlin or on whether he plans to visit the United Nations after the U.S. elections Nov. 6.

Cache of $10,000 Found in Old Piano

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — A piano tuner checking an old upright player piano Tuesday for rebuilding found nearly $10,000 hidden in it.

The discovery was by Wilford Tull of Kokomo, Ind., a tuner for the Ramsey Piano Co.

Eight Reappointed to Human Rights Group

MADISON (AP)—Eight members of the Governor's Commission on Human Rights were reappointed Tuesday by Gov. Gaylord Nelson.

Named to three-year terms were Dr. G. Aubrey Young of Waukesha, the Rev. Stephen V. Labaj of Racine, Alfred W. Winter of Prairie du Chien, Tom Miglatsch of Oconomowoc, Robert Levine and Dr. Manfred E. Swarsensky of Madison, and John W. Schmitt and Mrs. Irene Secora of Milwaukee.

12 Marooned Islanders Tell How They Survived

among the 17 Tongans. With it they started a fire from wreckage to serve as beacon and cookstove. Through the 11 weeks someone always was on watch to see that the fire did not go out.

"We took our food from our wrecked boat and lived on that for 17 days," said Feukai. "Then we had to catch fish hand crabs."

They also had aluminum pots. Sea water was put in one aluminum pot with a lid and the pot placed over the fire.

Steam from the pot passed through a rubber tube and condensed in the other kettle. This produced two pints of precious water a day—a small cup for each man.

"After 24 days Fatai Elefai died and was buried in the sand on the reef. Then later that day Sione Sikeleti and Sione Loe died," Feukai said.

The men decided to build a raft from the wrecked fishing boat. Capt. Tevita said he would try to reach the Fijis for help.

RAFT Volunteer Dies

"We had only a hammer and no saw," Feukai related, "and had to cut timber with a nail."

By this time, a fourth man had died. The captain and two volunteers boarded the raft and set out for Kandavu, most southerly of the Fiji islands, 350 miles away.

The three had no food and only four cups of water. One volunteer died on the way.

Weak and exhausted, the captain and the other islander arrived Monday at Kandavu, and gasped out their story.

The flying boat went to Minerva Reef, took the 10 bearded men aboard, and brought them to Suva.

Vice President to Get Secret Service Guard

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secret Service protection was extended to the vice president or anyone else next in line for the presidency, under a bill signed Tuesday by President Kennedy.

Vice presidents could request protection previously. Now they will get it as a matter of course, as will the speaker of the House or president of the Senate, if they are immediate presidential successors.

allies could take. Officials indicate there has been some talk of an economic boycott if the East German demands regular diplomatic visas for travel to Berlin across their territory.

Other Meetings

The meeting is the first in a series of talks the President plans on the Berlin situation. He will re-ceive Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Thursday. Then on Nov. 7, the day after the congress- sional elections, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will open consultations here with Ken-

Meanwhile, Foy D. Kohler, the new U.S. ambassador to Moscow, conferred Tuesday with Khrushchev in the Russian capital. It was believed certain Berlin was high on the agenda.

A brief communique issued after the session said the talk was held in an atmosphere of sincerity and mutual understanding. "They in the Russian passport, Western ac-touched important international ceptance of their demand could be issues and also questions of Soviet-American relations," the communique said.

State Department officials in Washington are now studying Koh-ler's report.

Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara all foresee the probability of ex-tremely dangerous East-West con-frontations over Berlin by the end of the year, though they are not quite sure how the crisis may develop. One possibility is that Khrushchev will sign his long-threatened separate peace treaty with East Germany and claim that this gives the Red German regime sovereign control over the end of the year, though they are not quite sure how the crisis may develop. Asks Quick Trial

In the November election John-son faces Rogers C. B. Morton, a Republican and the brother of Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky. Morton refused comment on the indictments, though other mem-bers of the Maryland Republican ticket jumped on Johnson with gusto.

Boykin, 77, also indicated he wants a quick trial, and ex-pressed confidence he will be vin-dicated. He failed to win the Dem-tion would be to cut off West Ger-man trade with East Germany. But Schroeder is reported to have argued in his talks with Rusk that this would not be effective unless all the North Atlantic Treaty Al-lies supported the boycott.

Schroeder told the Overseas Press Club at a luncheon meet-ing Tuesday the West would be mistaken "to assume that we could attain a kind of coexistence with the Soviet Union by giving in on Berlin."

ocratic nomination May 28 after 14 terms in the House.

"I'm anxious for the trial to come real quick," he said. "I have never had a nickel's worth of business with the savings and loans in my life."

Postmaster General J. Edward Day, speaking at a rally in Salis-bury, Md., Friday, lauded John-son for his work in Congress and called for his re-election.

President Kennedy mentioned Johnson by name and called for his re-election when he spoke to a huge Democratic rally in Bal-timore Oct. 10.

The special grand jury charged that Johnson, seeking a third term from Maryland's 1st District, had received $24,918 for his efforts in Edlin's behalf, and that both con-gressmen realized profits on real-estate transactions totaling at least $3.3 million in which Edlin also was involved.

The congressmen, Edlin and William L. Robinson, 37, a Miami attorney, were charged in one count with conspiring to obstruct impartial operation of the Depart-ment of Justice and right of the government to service of the con-gressmen without corruption, dis-honesty and fraud.

Johnson, 53, also was charged in seven other counts of receiving specific payments of $17,550 in violation of a criminal conflict of interest. The others were named as aiding and abetting him in the transactions.

Payments Reported

The jury said the payments were made either by First Contin-ental Savings and Loan Associa-

Acquisition of the FWD Corp. is a step in Mount Clemens' direction of Maryland or Robinson, and said the payments were for John-son's intercession with the Jus-tice Department in Edlin's behalf. The indictment said Edlin controlled First Continental and First Col-ony.

Boykin's inducement to inter-cede in Edlin's behalf, the jury said, was purchase by Edlin of property the Alabama Democrat owned in Maryland.

Bail of $10,000 was set by U.S. Dist. Judge Edward S. Northrop for each of the four defendants. Each of the four defendants could receive maximum sentences of 18 years and fines totaling $60,000 in addition to being barred from federal office.

verification program. Other ac-quisitions include Chester Tricot Mills, Inc., Kennett Square, Pa., a textile firm, and Andover In-dustry, Inc., Andover, Ohio, a producer of molded plastic parts for the automotive and appliance industries.

Mount Clemens has its head-quarters in Bala-Cynwyd, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb. It has plants in Mount Clemens, Mancelona and East Jordan, Mich.; Kennett Square, Pa., and Andover, Ohio.

Walter A. Olen, 87, founder of the original Four Wheel Drive Auto Co., spoke briefly at the luncheon, saying he was satisfied that this group would be doing great things with the Four Wheel Drive field of automotive endeavor. Pennys opened his comments with a toast to Olen.

L. A. DePellis, FWD president, said he is happy with the change.

Town, Country Days Planned For Kaukauna Homecoming

Parade, Game, Special Street Events Scheduled for Weekend

KAUKAUNA — Plans have been completed for the Town and Country Homecoming days here Friday and Saturday with retail merchants scheduling fall show-ing of merchandise in conjunction with homecoming plans at Kaukauna High School.

Stores will begin their promotions at 9 a.m. Friday, serving free cider and doughnuts. Streets will be decorated in a fall theme and the Junior Chamber of Commerce will operate concession booths in both business areas. Students from grades three through eight are to bring carved pumpkins to J. J. Martens' store on the southside and Royal Clothing or Luedtke's Variety Store on the northside prior to 5 p.m.

Judge Pumpkins
Carved pumpkin faces will be judged between 5 and 6:30 p.m. with 13 prizes to be given on each side of the city. Eugene

Goal Met for Plamann Fund

$500 Donation From AAUW Puts Campaign Over Top

A $500 contribution from the American Association for University Women has put the Plamann School building fund over the top. The AAUW donation brings the amount raised up to the $81,135 construction cost of the school for retarded children, which was opened this fall.

The Outagamie County Citizens for Retarded Children Inc., which built the school and turned it over to the county to be operated as a free public school, will have its final meeting at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 13 at Plamann School. The necessary legal steps will be taken and the group will be terminated.

Investment Return
The amount spent on the school totals more than 100 per cent of the donations raised by the citizens' group, said Dr. Robert Scherzinger, president. The total expense to the group of raising the money was $1,109.63, he said, while the return on investment of donations was $1,333.64.

The citizens' group was incorporated in 1959 solely as a fund-raising organization, with the intention of dissolving once the school was built and paid for. The group was formed after county Kiwanis clubs became interested in building a school for retarded children, but realized that the project was too big for them alone.

Realizing that public apathy was a major problem, members of the citizens' group stirred up interest by speaking at hundreds of meetings of civic, service and women's clubs. As a result, more than half the funds came from civic organizations, unlike the typical fund campaign in which business and industry do the lion's share.

County Workers Ask to Begin Negotiations

The Outagamie County Institutional Employees Union, Local 980, is seeking to begin negotiations with the board of trustees of the Outagamie County Hospital and Golden Age Home No. 2, Appleton.

Union representative Robert W. Swanson, Appleton, said the union is seeking a contract to include provisions for seniority and grievance clauses. Also up for discussion is re-instatement of a discharged employee and establishment of a new pay scale.

Swanson said a meeting has been tentatively scheduled for Oct. 23. Local 980 was certified as the legal bargaining agent for employees in an election conducted by the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board.

Backache relief pills bring mild diuretic action through the kidneys

Unwise eating or drinking may be a source of mild but annoying bladder irritations—making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. Paper Institute Members Attend Montreal Talks

Four members of the Institute of Paper Chemistry staff are attending the TAPI engineering conference in Montreal, continuing through Friday.

They include Dr. William L. Ingmanson, research associate, engineering and technology section; Bruce D. Andrews, research aide, engineering and technology section; Dr. Edward F. Thode, co-ordinator of information processing and chairman of the conference technical session on operations research; and Dr. Willis Van Horn, head of the biology group.

Dr. Ingmanson is presenting the paper, "High Velocity Water Flow through Fibrous Mats" at the conference.

Two other papers are being presented by R. L. Jones and R. C. Johnson, recent graduates of the Paper Institute.

Alcoholism Will Be Discussed at Appleton Meeting

The Fox Valley Mental Health Association will sponsor a seminar on alcoholism Feb. 9.

The one-day seminar at the Conway Hotel will include individual speakers, panels and workshops. Co-chairmen are the Rev. Carl Wilke and Francis Sum-nicht.

Dr. Edwin Olson, Lawrence College professor, will speak on the "Psychology of Alcoholism." He worked last summer with alcoholics at Winnebago State Hospital. Other speakers will be announced later.

State and county officials, law enforcement officers, social workers and mental health association members will be invited to participate. The general public also may register for the seminar.

Alcoholics Anonymous will co-operate with the association on the seminar.

The Fox Valley Mental Health Association sponsored a seminar on "Religion and Mental Health" two years ago in cooperation with the Winnebago County Mental Health Association.

Bruhn Hopes Iowa Offense Has Not Jelled

UW Has Beaten Hawkeyes Only Once Since Milt Took Over

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's undefeated football team is loaded with incentive for Saturday's Big game with dangerous Iowa, a team the Badgers have beaten only once since Milt Bruhn took over as head coach seven years ago.

The game offers Wisconsin the chance to close out its long home stand with a fourth straight victory at Camp Randall Stadium. And the Badgers will be gunning for some measure of revenge for the 47-15 defeat the Hawkeyes hung on them last year.

Iowa won the year before, too, 28-21, and a sign posted in Wisconsin's locker room reads: "Seniors last chance."

Both teams will be seeking their second Big Ten conference victory. Each has defeated Indiana.

While the Badgers blasted the Hoosiers 30-6, Iowa had to come from behind twice to edge Indiana last week 14-10.

Bragan New Braves Pilot

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves today announced the signing of former major league player, manager and coach Bobby Bragan as manager.

Bragan, who will be 45 on Oct. 20, takes over as the Braves' fourth field boss since the club tied for the pennant in the regular 1959 season and then lost in a playoff with Los Angeles. He succeeds Birdie Tebbetts, who quit with a year to go on his contract, to become manager of the Cleveland Indians.

President and General Manager John McHale introduced Bragan, who was kept waiting in a side office during a news conference before making an entrance dressed in a Braves' cap and uniform.

Unlike his two predecessors, Charley Dressen and Tebbetts, Bragan was given only a one-year contract. Dressen was fired late in the second year of his two-year pact and Tebbetts left after one year.

In making the announcement, McHale said: "There were many outstanding baseball men available for the Braves managing position and, after careful consideration, it was our thinking that the best possible man was Bobby Bragan."

Bragan said, "I really am excited over this opportunity."

"I can't think of a better man to be associated with than the one sitting next to me—John McHale," the new manager said. "I'm also glad to be back with Ray Haysworth, director of player personnel, coach and Whitlow Wyatt."

Bragan said he would retain Wyatt and the newly signed Jo-Jo White as coaches.

Two 1962 Milwaukee coaches, Andy Patko and Jimmie Dykes, recently were released and the status of another, Bill Adair, is indefinite.

Air Force Stadium to Be Dedicated Saturday

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP)—The Air Force Falcon Stadium, built with $3.5 million from more than 5,000 contributors, will be dedicated Saturday at the Oregon-Air Force football game.

The game and half-time ceremonies will be seen on the CBS "game of the week" telecast.

It's the second game to be played in the concrete, aluminum and glass stadium. Air Force won 35-7 from Colorado State University in the opener Sept. 22.

'What a Perfect Ending' Terry Calls Victory a Personal Triumph After 2 Years of Worry

BY JIM BECKER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Big Cabin, Okla., is down the road from Chelsea, and they are both a long way from the top of the baseball world.

Along the road, as Ralph Terry, the New York Yankee right-hander, has traveled it, there have been some bumps, including a serious auto accident, some heights and one terrible depression.

The high point of the road was reached in Candlestick Park Tuesday as a line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants rocketed into the glove of Yankee second baseman Bobby Richardson for the final out in the seventh game of the 1962 World Series.

A foot either way, and . . . but it was not a foot either way, and the Yankees won the game 1-0, and the World Series 4-3.

"He hit a good pitch good," Terry said. "The rest was in somebody else's hands."

"I was lucky."

Terry is 26. He is a shy, almost frail man. His looks belie his listed 6-foot-3 inches and 180 pounds. He has wavy brown hair, a thin, handsome face and a jutting chin.

He sat in his dressing cubicle in the Yankee dressing room, tilted back against the wall, his head thrown back, a dead smile on his face and said:

"What an ending. What a perfect ending. . . 1-0. . . that's how close the two teams were in every respect in this series."

New York Yankee pitcher Ralph Terry is carried off the field by his jubilant teammates following his four-hit 1-0 shutout over the San Francisco Giants in the seventh game of the World Series Tuesday. The whitewash job gave the Yankees the world championship. (AP Wirephoto)

He thought a bit, and added in his soft voice:

"Thank God for the second opportunity. Seldom does a man get a second chance. I'll be eternally grateful."

"This is a personal triumph. It wipes away two years of worry, two years of doubt."

And Terry was thinking back along the road to Big Cabin, where he was born, Chelsea, where he was reared, to the mixed-up country boy of 18 who signed with two baseball teams

(the Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals).

Terry agreed verbally to sign with Yankee scout Tom Greenwade but changed his mind and decided to sign with the Cardinals.

The matter went to Commissioner Ford Frick, who ruled in favor of the Yankees because a prior telegram was on file.

The Yankees farmed him to Binghamton, N.Y., an Eastern League club, where he had an 11-9 record in 1954. He finally worked his way up to the Yankees in 1956.

Yankees to Get About $12,000 Each for Series

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Each winning New York Yankee will receive about $12,000 and each losing San Francisco Giant about $8,000 from the World Series.

The exact breakdown will be announced later by Commissioner Ford Frick as the clubs are not permitted to announce the way they split the purse.

The total player pool was $863,281.71. Seventy per cent of that or $604,297.20, went to the two Series clubs and the rest is spread among the players on the teams finishing second, third and fourth.

Of the $604,297.20 to be divided by the Yanks and Giants, the winners get $362,578.32 and the losers $241,718.88. If each club had 30 full shares, it would come down to $12,000 and $8,000 a man.

Yankees Win 20th Title as Terry Shades Giants, 1 to 0

Run Scores on Double Play; New York Triumphs Despite .199 Series Team Average

BY JOE REICHLER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The New York Yankees, famed for their slugging heroics from the days of Babe Ruth to Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Co., won the 1962 World Series on pitching—and pitching alone.

While the hitters, for the most part, played dead, the pitchers—all who toiled in the seven-game series with the San Francisco Giants—were magnificent. So were those of the Giants, who put up a valiant struggle, grudgingly going down to defeat but not until they had the tying run on third and the winning run on second with two out in the ninth inning of the seventh game.

The most magnificent pitcher of all was Ralph Terry, who had been living under a cloud ever since he became the "goat" of the 1960 World Series when he threw a series winning home run to Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski in the ninth inning of the final game.

Terry started three games. He pitched strongly in the second, losing 2-0. He pitched as well in the fifth game, winning 5-3. Tuesday, the 26-year-old right-hander was superb, limiting the Giants to four hits and winning 1-0. Jack Sanford, Terry's mound opponent in all three games, was the victim of the heart-breaking defeat.

'Best Game'

"This has to be the best game Terry has ever pitched," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, who set some kind of a record by leading a team to a world championship in each of his first two years as a major league pitcher.

"I have never seen him with better control. He didn't walk a single batter and he had three balls on only one hitter. I don't think he made more than three or four bad pitches all day."

Terry agreed that he had never pitched better in his life.

"I had a one-hitter against the Yankees when I was with Kansas City," the 6-3, 180-pound Oklahoman recalled. "And I once beat Camilo Pascual 2-0 in 13 innings in Washington, but this is the greatest game I have ever pitched."

Terry, relying mainly on a fast ball and slider, plus near perfect control, easily disposed of the first 17 batters he faced. Memories of Don Larsen's perfect game in the

Rocket '11' Meets Kimberly in M-E Feature Saturday

Two Friday Night Games Launch Loop's Weekend Card championship Saturday afternoon when they tangle with the Kimberly High School Papermakers on the Neenah High School field.

The Rockets, out to beat Walter Schurra's feat by one complete orbit, appear to be well on their way to a successful flight. If they can get by Kimberly, only two second division opponents (Clintonville and Two Rivers) stand in their way.

Kaukauna, which was unsuccessful in trying to scare the Rockets off their path last week, can do little more than hope for Neenah to falter in the final weeks of the season. The Ghosts must beat Two Rivers at Little Chute Saturday to stay in contention.

2 Friday Games

Menasha meets Shawano, and Clintonville travels to New London as the league's slate gets underway on Friday night.

Shawano is another team that is in a challenging position. The Indians could also "stay alive" in the M-E race by defeating Menasha. Last week's tie with Clintonville, however, hurt the tribe's chances for an outright crown.

Everything was A-O-K in the Neenah camp this week except for two players, Mike Demerath and Bob Bletzinger. Demerath, a regular guard, is suffering from a sprained ankle and Bletzinger, a defensive tackle, has a broken nose. Both are doubtful starters in the Kimberly contest.

The quick-striking, versatile Rocket attack will be difficult to stop. Neenah strikes on the wing. The Red Devils, with the speedy Davis in the backfield, will be difficult to stop. Neenah strikes on the wing. The Red Devils, with the speedy Davis in the backfield, will be difficult to stop.

Jim Taylor Has Firm Grip on Rushing Lead

Bart Starr Ranks Second in NFL Passing Statistics

GREEN BAY (AP)—The Green Bay Packers' Jim Taylor is running away from the competition as he bids for the National Football League rushing crown.

The Packer fullback has a firm hold on first place in the ground gamblers' race, according to league statistics announced today in New York.

Paul Hornung, the Packers' now injured halfback, continues in first place as he seeks his fourth straight league scoring title.

The Packers' Willie Wood has replaced his defensive backfield teammate, Herb Adderley, as the top man in interceptions with five, and Green Bay quarterback Bart Starr has moved into second place among the passers. And Packer flanker Boyd Dowler is tied for sixth place among the pass receivers with Bobby Joe Conrad of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Taylor, seeking to unseat the Cleveland Browns' Jimmy Brown as the league's top rusher, galloped for 164 yards last Sunday as the defending champion Packers won their fifth straight game by defeating the Minnesota Vikings 48-21.

Average of 6.2

In the season's five games, Taylor has carried 95 times for 582 yards, or an average gain of 6.2 yards. His longest run was 31 yards.

While Brown was slipping to sixth place in the listing, the Pittsburgh Steelers' John Henry Johnson moved into second place with 439 yards, putting him 173 yards behind Taylor.

Hornung, sidelined with a twisted knee received in the Viking game, managed to score a touchdown and boot an extra point before he was forced out. He has 62 points for the season on five touchdowns and six field goals.

AHS, Lawrence Face Rugged Homecoming Tests, Coaches Say

Vikes' Wickland To Miss Game Against Ripon

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN

The Appleton High School and Lawrence College football coaches indicated Tuesday night that no matter how festive the rest of Saturday's homecoming celebrations are, the gridiron portions will be no picnic.

Ade Dillon, who will send the Terrors against Green Bay East at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Goodland Field, told the Quarterback Club that the Red Devils have "a good ball club" and added candidly, "We'll have to play better than we did last Saturday to win."

Bernie Heselson, who is preparing the Vikings for their 2 p.m. Saturday engagement against Ripon at Whiting Field, said "We have a chance, but it would have been a better one if Carey Wickland weren't hurt. . . we'll be in there as long as we can."

Heselson went on to explain that Wickland, an all-Midwest Conference defensive back last year, was hurt in last Saturday's 28-0 win over Monmouth and will miss the Ripon game.

Wickland fell on his shoulder after a pass reception in the last two minutes of the game.

Wickland will be missed offensively (he plays left halfback), but his absence will be felt most on defense, said Heselson.

Cromheecke Back

The Lawrence coach reported that lineman Paul Cromheecke who missed the last two games.

Pheasant Season Opens Saturday

Shooting Outlook About Same As Last Year, CD Reports

BY JAY REED
Post-Crescent Outdoor Editor

Thick cover turned brown and brittle by fall will greet the legions of hunters turning out Saturday for the opening of the 1962 Wisconsin pheasant season.

The season opens at noon. The bag limit for Saturday and Sunday is one rooster per hunter. Starting Monday and continuing through the Nov. 13 close, the bag limit is doubled, or two pheasant cocks per man.

The outlook for shooting, according to the best estimates of the Conservation Department, is that it will be probably about the same as last year, or, perhaps, just a bit under that standard, whatever it was.

More realistically, hunter success will depend first of all on whether or not a man is shooting over a good bird dog. It will trail Hornung with 48 points each.

Starr, completing 20 of 28 passes against the Vikings for 297 yards, trails only Eddie LeBaron of Dallas. Starr has attempted 106 passes, completing 58 for 830 yards and six touchdowns, and an average gain of 8.77 yards.

LeBaron has completed 51 of 77 passes for 787 yards, a half dozen TIs and has an average gain of 10.22 yards.

Bowler has caught 23 passes for 403 yards and one touchdown. Conrad has as many catches for 315 yards and no touchdowns. The league's top pass receiver is Tommy McDonald of Philadelphia with 31 receptions for 543 yards and three touchdowns.

Sheboygan North Tops AHS, South In Harrier Meet

Sheboygan North defeated Appleton and Sheboygan South in a triangular cross country meet at Pierce Park here Tuesday afternoon. North had a score of 24, Appleton had 43 and South had 58.

Eller of North won the race in 12:08 and Dick Bunn of Appleton was second in 12:09. North took the next two places with Van Handel and Stanville finishing third and fourth, respectively.

Bill Schockley and Dennis Brinkman of Appleton were fifth and sixth. Hime was the top finisher for South as he took eighth place.

Appleton won the junior varsity meet with 16 points while South had 38 and North did not have enough runners to comprise a full team.

Dick Popp, of the Terrors, was first for the javees in a time of 12:56. Dunn of North was second.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—General Manager Bing Devine of the St. Louis Cardinals announced Tuesday the unconditional release of infielder Red Schoendienst as a Big Ten last season, and juniors player, Schoendienst will become Jack Brens, Mike O'Melia and in full-time coach, Devine said.

Bruhn Hopes Iowa Offense Has Not Jelled

consideration from Bruhn who says "If Matt Szykowny has a good day they're tough."

Will be Ready

Szykowny, the senior quarterback who passed for three touchdowns and ran for another when Iowa beat Wisconsin last year, missed the Indiana game and sophomore Bobby Wallace guided the team. Szykowny is expected to be ready for Wisconsin.

Bruhn evaluates Iowa as a team which has proved "quite stubborn on defense," and says, "I feel they have tremendous potential on offense but haven't quite jelled yet."

Bruhn said if the Hawkeye attack is going to reach its potential "I'd just as soon have them do it some other week."

With Szykowny at quarterback, the Hawkeyes have a top-notch passer. And he has three good receivers in end Cloyd Webb, and Paul Krause and Sammy Harris who play the fifth back in Coach Jerry Burns' "floating-T" formation.

The Iowa running attack is paced by halfbacks Larry Ferguson and Bobby Grier and fullback Perkins. "That Perkins is a back I've got a lot of respect for," Bruhn said.

The Hawkeyes opened the season with a 28-0 victory over Oregon State then dropped a 7-0 decision to the University of Southern California and beat Indiana.

The "floating-T" used by Iowa will employ either Krause or Harris split outside to either side to give burns five backs. Only one tackle is used on offense. On defense, the quarterback is replaced by a tackle.

Gained Poise

Bruhn has a young team that has gained poise in whipping three straight foes. The biggest test was last week's 17-8 victory over Notre Dame that saw Wisconsin in full command all the way despite giving up the half eight times on fumbles and pass interceptions.

The Wisconsin squad came out of the Notre Dame game with a number of pesky injuries that was the backfield where left halfbacks Lou Holland and Jim Nettles and right half Ron Smith have leg injuries.

All are expected to be able to play Saturday, however.

Saturday's game will be the 40th meeting between the two schools in a series dating to 1894. Wisconsin has won 24 of the games and Iowa 15. The Hawkeyes have won five of the last six encounters.

UW Cagers Open Drills Monday

MADISON (AP)—The University of Wisconsin basketball team, second in the Big Ten after posting a 17 and 7 overall record last year, opens practice Monday for a season beginning Dec. 1 with a game at the Air Force Academy.

Coach John Erickson has seven lettermen and four of last season's starters returning as he begins his fourth season as head coach.

Starters returning are Ken Siegel, seventh ranked scorer in the Big Ten last season, and juniors London and Burrell who had more points scored against it, 107.

Bliss, and another scabback, Jim Weirke.

The Rockets also strike through the air with the arm of Dick Kuehl. Kuehl has two good ends to throw to in Dan Zehner and Ewalt Wollerman. Coach Harland Kiehl's gridders are also dangerous in bringing back punts and kickoffs.

Allow 25 Points

Looking at the Mid-Eastern statistic, if anyone is able to stop the Rockets, it has to be Kimberly. The Papermakers have given up only 25 points in four games, two wins and two losses; an average of about a touchdown per contest.

On the other hand, the Neenah offense has streaked to an average of over five touchdowns per game. The Rockets have tallied 134 points in their four victories. Neenah's 32 points against Kaukauna last week just about ruined the Kaukauna record of points scored against. Going into the game, the Ghosts had only a safety by Menasha against their record. Now the record reads 34.

Coach Harry Wilson's crew will be out to improve on their mark against a Purple Raider unit that has given up 72 points. Only New London has had more points scored against it, 107.

Motor City's Fourth Effort

Detroit to be U. S. Representative In Bid for 1968 Summer Olympics

CHICAGO (AP)—The city of Detroit will get another opportunity to host Olympic competition when it makes a bid for the 1968 summer games as the United States representative.

Detroit and Lake Placid, N.Y., were selected by the U.S. Olympic Committee Tuesday to bid for the 1968 summer and winter games, respectively, at the International Olympic Committee meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, Oct. 13, 1963.

It will be Detroit's fourth effort to get the games. U.S. officials expressed doubt that the Motor City would be successful. Lake Placid, scene of the 1932 winter games, had little hopes of snaring the 1968 bid since the United States had the 1960 winter games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

Detroit was selected over Los Angeles, scene of the 1932 games, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Portland, Ore. Lake Placid beat out Salt Lake City.

Detroit was chosen by the 37-man board of directors "after a very lengthy, wearing discussion," said K. L. "Tug" Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee. Wilson praised the presentations of the other cities and indicated the final selection was between Detroit and Los Angeles.

At Nairobi, international competition for the games is expected from Lausanne, Vienna, Mexico City and Buenos Aires.

"With the large European bloc and a very strong plea from Lausanne, headquarters of the International Olympic Committee, the United States may have a tough time landing the 1968 games," said Wilson. "However, I think we are in a position to do a better job than any of the international cities which will bid."

Doug Roby of Detroit, vice president of the U.S. Olympic Committee and one of three American members of the International Olympic Committee, made it clear he used no influence for Detroit.

"We must remember that when we get to Nairobi it is not the American city making the bid, it is the United States," said Roby. "I am sure that the three times Detroit has been passed up was not because of the city but because it was the United States bid. The biggest argument against the United States has been the foreign exchange which makes it expensive for outside countries to send their representatives."

Roby added that there is a four-

Dark Sure Alou Would Have Been Thrown Out

Double by Mays Might Have Gone to Fence on Dry Field, Allowed Score

BY DICK BARNES

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Bunt not even had a base runner—the to put the tying run in scoring position when you're at home," says baseball's unwritten book of strategy.

But the San Francisco Giants threw the book out of the window in the ninth inning of Tuesday's final game of the World Series—and so they lost 1-0 because the tying run was one base short of scoring when Willie Mays doubled with two out.

"You bunt to tie if you have someone who can bunt," said Giants' Manager Alvin Dark, who refused to second-guess his strategy.

This was the situation: Matty Alou opened the bottom of the ninth with a drag bunt single. His brother, Felipe Alou, followed—and he struck out after fouling off a no-strike bunt attempt.

"I tried to bunt and I muffed it," said Felipe. "Then they took the signal off." Felipe is not noted as a bunter, and is the first to admit it.

Go for Bunt

"Felipe is tough to double up," said Dark. "So I'm not worried about that. Now the score is tied and we're going for the winning run, then I do go for the bunt. But I'd have to bring in Harvey Kuhn to do it. Felipe just isn't much of a bunter."

Chuck Hiller was next up, and he also struck out after one bunt attempt dribbled foul at the last moment.

"Naturally I'd like to have Mays up in scoring position with Willie Mays up," said Dark, explaining why Hiller was given one chance to bunt.

"But he was going for the hit, not just a sacrifice," chimed in third base coach Whitey Lockman.

Mays batted after the two strikeouts and lashed a double to right field that Roger Maris quickly fielded, thus preventing Matty Alou from scoring.

Some thought Alou should have been sent home. But the consensus of Dark, Lockman, Mays and even Yankee Manager Ralph Houk was that he would have been an easy out at the plate.

Most agreed, however, that with a dry field, the ball would have gone to the fence and Alou could have scored.

San Francisco's strategy of going for a double play when the Yankees scored their lone run was also questioned. New York Dodgers have re-hired field man-had the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

Hard Grounders

Tony Kubek hit a hard grounder to shortstop Jose Pagan, who once scheduled for later today for the double play instead of "an important announcement," of the man at the plate.

Pagan and Dark agreed, however, that as early as the fifth w-

Chuck McGinnis Rolls 234 Game In Freedom Loop

FREEDOM — Vance Garvey rolled a 226 game, and Harvey Bowers slammed a 613 series to lead the American League at Ludwigs Lanes.

Bowers had a 225 singleton and Garvey finished with a 562 series. Coffey Insurance (14-1) is in first place with a 2-game lead over Shorty's VFW.

Other honor scores included Bob Gewitz, 573; Bill Daniorth, 606; Mel Ludwig, 573; Dick Pearock, 564; Carl Griener, 564; Joe Ludwig, Jr., 569; Bob McGinnis, 551; Glen Muenster, 574; Sonny Skendore, 574 and Marv Vanden Heuvel, 554.

Hits 561 Series

Larry Mossholder posted a 561 series for the only honor score in the National League at Ludwigs. Kahle's Insurance and Ludwig's are tied for first place with 114 records.

Chuck McGinnis had a 234 singleton and 604 series to lead the National League at Liesch's Lanes.

The VFW team leads the league with a 10-5 record. Other honor scores included Ray Evers, 550; Clyde Weyenberg, 550; Larry Terkin, 551 and Ben Stepan, 551.

Glen Muenster rolled a 576 series to lead the way in the Baseball Couples League at Ludwigs Lanes. Donna Muenster topped the women with a 217 singleton. The Cardinals, Dodgers, Giants and Phillies are tied for the league lead. The only other honor score was a 565 by Jim Ludwig.

Knicks Record Narrow Win In NBA Opener

Bellamy Scores 43 As Chicago Loses; Lakers Trim Pistons

NEW YORK (AP) — Hunking Paul Hogue, one of the most sought-after basketball players in the nation after leading Cincinnati to two straight NCAA championships, has had his baptism of fire in the National Basketball Association and he's looking at it as a matter of experience.

"It's good experience to start off against a guy like Walt Bellamy," the 6-9, 240-pound rookie of the New York Knickerbockers said today after a rough league debut in which foul trouble limited him to 14 minutes of action and a mere six points and eight rebounds.

Triggers Rally
Although the Knicks opened the season with a 121-119 victory over the Chicago Zephyrs, Bellamy wound up with 43 points out of the pivot against Hogue and his relief men and triggered a late Chicago rally that nearly pulled out the game. Hogue, who picked up three fouls in the first nine minutes and was pulled to the bench by Coach Eddie Donovan, returned in the second half and made several key defensive moves.

With Hogue and 6-8 Gene Conley, the Boston Red Sox right-hander and cool-weather basketball, indications are the Knicks will have their best rebounding in years. Conley, still not in top shape after reporting late from the Red Sox, scored 12 points and was strong off the boards in a limited appearance.

A crowd of 8,247 turned up at Madison Square Garden for the Tuesday night doubleheader that launched the 1962-63 NBA season. In the opener, the Los Angeles Lakers, defending Western Division champions, whipped Detroit 122-106 with their one-two punch of Elgin Baylor and Jerry West dominating play, as usual.

Baylor scored 35 points and West 30 as the Lakers broke open the game in the fourth period. Ray Scott of Detroit was the high scorer, with 37 points.

Tresh's Catch Saved Game, Houk Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Virtually overlooked in the jubilant Yankee dressing room after the New Yorkers had won the World Series Tuesday by beating the Giants 1-0 was rookie outfielder Tom Tresh.

But while pitcher Ralph Terry was mobbed by reporters Ralph Houk, Yankee manager, gave due credit to his star rookie.

"His catch on Willie Mays in the seventh inning saved the game," Houk said.

The catch probably will go down as one of the best in series history. Tresh raced into the left field corner to snare Willie's drive and turned into an out what appeared to be a sure two-bagger. Willie McCovey followed with a triple, but he was left stranded.

Tresh's catch was somewhat similar to Sandy Amoros' in the left field corner at Yankee Stadium in the seventh game of the 1955 World Series and helped bring the Dodgers their first World Series triumph. They won the game 2-0 behind southpaw Johnny Podres.

Tresh didn't wait long to listen to any praise, but took his bag and quickly headed for the airport. He had been due to report to Central Michigan University last Monday to resume his courses.

Braves Purchase Contracts of 5 Young Prospects

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves protected five young prospects from the major league player draft today by purchasing their contracts from farm affiliates.

Obtained from Louisville of the American Association were catcher Phil Roof, 21, outfielder Glenn Clark, 18, southpaw pitcher Dan Schneider, 19, and right-handed pitcher Larry Maxie, 21. First baseman Corky Withrow, 24, was called up from Austin of the Texas League.

To make room on the roster the Braves assigned the contracts of Ken Aspromonte and Dick Smith to Louisville and sent Howie Bedell to Toronto of the International League.

Roof hit .228 for Louisville. Clark batted .346 with Dublin in the Georgia-Florida League and .250 for Boise in the Pioneer League. Schneider had a 5 - 6 for Louisville, while Maxie was 2-3 for the Colonels. Withrow hit .290 and had 34 homers with Austin.

Terry Shakes Off Memory Of '60 Series

but was sent to Kansas City in a multi-player deal, June 15, 1957. Going from the Yankees to the A's was bad enough. What followed was worse.

Asleep at Wheel

On a bleak November night in 1958, Terry fell asleep at the wheel of his car. It shot into a ditch and rolled over four times. "I could still hear the wheels spinning in the darkness," Terry recalled earlier this year. "They took me to Kansas City where they found I had fractured my hip. I spent seven weeks in traction, lucky to be alive."

In 1959, Terry was traded back to the Yankees after two losing seasons with Kansas City. In 1960, he compiled a 10-8 record, but would up with a "goat" label when Bill Mazeroski's homer beat the Yankees in the series.

Working in relief Terry threw two pitches in the bottom of the ninth inning of the seventh game of that series, and Mazeroski hit the second one for a home run that won for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Terry snapped back from that terrible moment, and went on to win 23 games, high in the league, for the Yankees this season.

But he never forgot it. They wouldn't let him.

"I got an anonymous letter from Pittsburgh only this (Tuesday) morning," he said, "reminding me of Mazeroski, and saying I would throw another ball like that today."

"And I could hear people yelling at me in the stands, especially late in the game, about Mazeroski."

Another ninth inning, another seventh game, and Matty Alou dragged a bunt for a single. Terry got Felipe Alou and Chuck Hiller on strikeouts. Then Willie Mays doubled. Up came McCovey.

"I told (Manager Ralph) Houk I'd rather pitch to McCovey than walk him and pitch to (Orlando) Cepeda," Terry said.

"The first pitch was a curve. He hit it foul. Then I tried to jam him (pitch in close to the hands). He hit a good pitch good."

date, they have moved the bout indoors.

Co-promoters Cal Eaton and George Parnassus said the fight will be staged Nov. 15 in the 18,000-seat sports arena. It was booked originally for Memorial Coliseum Oct. 23.

The bout was rescheduled to avoid a conflict with the Gene Fullmer-Dick Tiger WBA middleweight title match in San Francisco. The San Francisco fight was switched from Oct. 16 to Oct. 23 when rain delayed the World Series.

Eaton and Parnassus said plans for closed circuit theater television of the Moore-Clay fight will be announced later.

Bowman's Streak Ends

Giants Outdid Yanks Except For Important Win Column

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Figuring the series:
Except for the important games won column, the Giants outdid the Yanks in most categories. They batted a collective .226 to the Yanks' .199. Other departments: Runs—Giants 21, Yanks 20; Doubles—Giants 10, Yanks 6; Triples—Giants 2, Yanks 1; Homers—Giants 5, Yanks 3.

Tuesday was only the third time this year that the Giants were shut out in Candlestick Park. Bob Gibson of St. Louis blanked them 1-0 on May 17 and Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale, of the Dodgers combined for a 2-0 shutout on July 8. San Francisco was whitewashed five times on the road.

Only three players among those who participated in all seven games batted .300 or higher. They were Jose Pagan of the Giants, 368, Tom Tresh of the Yanks .321, and Cleis Boyer, also of the Yanks, .318.

Ralph Terry pitched one other 1-0 four-hit victory this year before victimizing the Giants. It was against the Boston Red Sox on July 17. The Yankee right-hander had two other shutouts during the regular campaign.

Ernie Bowman, the Giants' utility infielder, finally got into a game his club lost. San Francisco had won 46 games in which Bowman had appeared in this year, including one in the series. Bowman replaced shortstop Pagan, who was pinch hit for by Ed Bailey in the eighth inning.

Each club struck out 39 times. Jim Davenport of the Giants fanned the most times, seven, followed by Terry with six.

Chuck Bayer Slams 634 in Major League

Ev Wegner Cracks 257; Haupt Team Hits 1,092 Game

Ev Wegner cracked a 257 game, and Chuck Bayer pounded a 634 series to share individual honors in the Major Scratch League at Hahn's Lanes Tuesday night.

Wegner finished with a 617 series and Bayer had a 246 singleton to his credit.

Haupt's Bar recorded a 1,092 single game total and 2,964 series. Berggren Brothers (13-5) is in first place.

Other honor scores included Don Strutz, 232-227-631; Norm Bunkleman, 240-623; John DeYoung, 621; Bob Jensen, 246-616; Bud Jentz, 233-605; Mike Court, 591; Bob Schmitz, 591; Al Seemann, 586; John Plach, 585; Norman Joecks, 236-572; Ed Grassl, 564; Bud Slach, 558; Joe Gregorius, 557; Bob Kositzke, 556; Gib Nabbe-feld, 554 and Harry Kositzke, 552.

Dennis Schultz rolled a 573 series to lead the Appleton Coated League at Hahn's Tuesday night. The Boilermakers (15-3) lead the league by a comfortable 5-game margin. There were no other honor scores.

Roosevelt Plays Host to Menasha Thursday Afternoon

FOX VALLEY FRESHMAN LEAGUE

Neenah 3 0 0 Menasha 1 2 0
Kaukauna 2 1 0 Wisconsin 0 2 1
Roosevelt 2 1 0 Madison 0 3 1
Kimberly 2 2 0

Thursday's Games:
Kimberly at Wilson,
Neenah at Madison,
Menasha at Roosevelt.

Neenah, the only remaining unbeaten team in the Fox Valley Freshmen Football League, will go up against one of the loop's two winless eleventh Thursday, the Madison Wildcats.

Roosevelt, soundly trounced by Kimberly last week, will try to regroup its forces against Menasha, and Kimberly will travel to Wilson to round out the week's action. Kaukauna has a bye this week.

The Junior Rockets had their goal line crossed for the first time last week when Kaukauna tallied a touchdown. Neenah had beaten Kimberly, 14-0, and Menasha, 41-0, before trimming Kaukauna, 14-7, last Thursday.

The Roosevelt Cardinals fell victim to an early blitz on the part of Kimberly and lost its first decision after two victories. For the Junior Papermakers, it was the second successive win. They had failed to score a point in their first two starts and lost to Neenah and Kaukauna.

Both Roosevelt and Kimberly can stay in contention for the league title with victories Thursday. Two weeks of play remain.

tackle smashes. They don't pass too much but can pass well, according to Dillon.

During the showing of the film of AHS' '20-0, win over North, Dillon lauded, among others, Dick Brock and Gary Hietpas, for their hard running; Tom Karrow, Mark Feltheim and Ken Kitzinger, for their defensive work; and Mike Woehler for his punting.

Heslerton reported that Monmouth used the cross-buck and man-in-motion a great deal, just as Ripon does. He added, however, that the Scots don't throw as much as Ripon since they don't have as good quarterback.

Outstanding Passer

The Lawrence mentor called Jack Ankerson, Ripon quarterback, an outstanding passer. He added that the Redmen have some fast backs to go with Ankerson.

Ankerson's counterpart, Gary Just, "is having a good year," Heslerton indicated. He especially commended Just's ball-carrying at Monmouth.

With Wickland on the sidelines, the Vikes will have to depend a good deal on Just Saturday, the coach said.

Heslerton also commented that quite a fullback duel is in store between the Vikes' Fred Flom and Ripon's Sid Frame. Both are top-notch all-carriers, he indicated.

Heslerton commended the Vikes for their "good defensive charge" against Monmouth and also cited individuals such as Berghult (for his blocking), Pat Jordan ("for giving 110 per cent in every game"), Gary Kussow (for his defensive end play) and sophomore back Tim Knabe (for his hard running and his defensive coverage).

Margaret Bentle Hits 560 in National Loop

Margaret Bentle recorded Appleton's top women's bowling score of the season Tuesday night when she socked a 560 series in the Women's National League at the 41 Bowl. Her best game was a 204.

Peg Rutton had the only other 200 series with a 14-4 record. Marie Keyzers smashed a 212 and a 528 in the 41 Bowl's Tag-a-Long League. Clara Redmond registered the only other honor scores, a 204 and 503. Appleton Specialty is the top team with a 15-3 record.

Gerrie LaBore's 506 paced the action in the Ten Pin Toller's League at Hahn's. Appleton Floors holds a 3-game lead.

Yankees Win World Title Behind Terry

1956 World Series for the Yankees must have been in the minds of the 43,948 Candlestick Park spectators at that time.

Terry thought of it, too, but his dream was shattered when Sanford lined a single to right center with two out in the sixth inning.

The Yankees, in the meantime, had taken a 1-0 lead and it took a double play to bring the run home. The all-important score came in the fifth. Singles by Bill Skowron and Cleo Boyer put runners on first and third with none out. Sanford, pitching carefully to Terry, walked the pitcher on four balls, filling the bases.

Sanford, who had blanked the Yankees on three hits in the second game and yielded only six hits while losing the fifth game, almost pitched himself out of the jam. He induced Tony Kubek to bounce into a double play as Skowron crossed the plate and retired Bobby Richardson on a food pop to Orlando Cepeda.

McCovey Triples

Terry made the run stand up, never permitting the Giants to put two men on base in any inning until the ninth although Willie McCovey tripled with two out in the seventh. Pinch hitter Matty Alou beat out a drag bunt and two outs later Willie Mays lined a double to the right field corner. Quick fielding by Maris and a fine relay from Maris to Richardson to the plate held Alou on third. McCovey's line drive to Richardson ended the game and gave Terry his second series victory.

Sanford and Billy O'Dell, who hurled the last three innings, held Papermaker touchdown when he ran 22 yards in the first period. Quarterback Bill Raddatz scored the extra point on a sneak.

Mark Siedel intercepted a New London pass and went 25 yards to score in the second period for the final touchdown. A run for the point was stopped.

the Yankees to seven hits, all singles. Mickey Mantle, who had gone hitless 13 straight times, got one of these hits, only his third in 25 official times at bat.

The Yankees had a team batting average of .199 and hit only three home runs. The Giants batted .226 with five home runs. Obviously, it was a pitchers' series.

It was the Yankees' 20th championship in 27 World Series since they won their first pennant in 1921. It also marked their fifth World Series triumph over the Giants, who haven't beaten them since 1922. The Giants also won from the Yankees in 1921, their first meeting.

RED FEATHER AGENCIES SERVE APPLETON

A Case History From The Local Files of The Salvation Army

Where does a man go when he is alone and penniless in a strange city? To whom does a family turn when they are new in a community with no friends or connections and in deep trouble? The Salvation Army has a long tradition of providing the help that is so necessary. This true case history from the files of the Army's local headquarters is but one of many incidents which demonstrate the need for this important Agency, one of ten supported through the Red Feather Campaign.

Mrs Jones (which, of course, was not her real name) was facing a most difficult situation. Her husband became ill and it was quite a problem to care for five small children. James Jones, disturbed over the fact that he could no longer give his family the things they needed, turned to drinking as an escape. This further cut into their diminishing funds. Finally things became too much for Jim and he left his family.

In desperation Mrs. Jones turned to the Salvation Army. She poured out her story to understanding Lt. Bender. With no food for tonight's meal she didn't know which way to turn.

An emergency food order was provided This gave Lt. Bender a chance to work out a plan with Mrs. Jones, now that she knew she would be able to feed her children. More important than the relief that was given was the moral support the Army provided. Arrangements were made for the family to receive public assistance while the father was gone. Lt. Bender stood by this family until Mr. Jones was located and came home. He has helped Jim face the music and solve what seemed like unsolvable problems.

With the backing provided the Jones by the Salvation Army, a father is back with his family and back at work providing for them . . . One less family being supported on relief.

Lawrence Planning For Homecoming

Lawrence College's 43rd annual homecoming celebration will take place this weekend against ancient gridiron rival Ripon. Lawrence and Ripon have met annually since 1893, except for three or four times when athletic relations were severed during the early years of the game, when monumental wrangles about rules were common.

List Program
Events of the homecoming weekend include:
Friday — 11 a.m. — Homecoming convocation of faculty, skits, houses.
7:30 p.m. — Traditional pajama parade, pep rally and torchlight review.

9:30 p.m. — Homecoming dance. Memorial Union.
Sunday — 11 a.m. — Coffee hour in Memorial Union.
Homecoming student chairmen are Barbara Isely, Deerfield, Ill., and Gordon Paine, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Committee members are Kathleen Dinham, Duluth, Minn.; Marles Noie, Milwaukee; Karen O'Keeffe, Brookline, Mass.; Jane Anderson, Austin, Minn.; Paula Presha, Barrington, Ill.; Steve Myers, Grand Haven, Mich.; Mary Tharinger, Hopkins, Minn.; Dave Hass, Waukesha; Marjorie Middleton, Honolulu, Hawaii; Wren Ellsworth, Cleveland, Ohio; Mike Gannett, West Cornwall, Conn.; Sue Poulsen, Racine; Bill Oram-Smith, Berwyn, Pa.; Stephanie Giese, Dundee, Ill.; Julie Biggers, Menasha; and Jim Eichstaedt, LaGrange Park, Ill.

Wisconsin Politicians at Odds On Number of State Agencies

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON—A recurring topic of political discussion and argument in Wisconsin lately has been the number of state government agencies, and the politicians rarely agree on the total figure. A new compilation by the legislative reference library concludes that there are now 94 separate agencies within the executive department of the state, seven in the legislative branch, and five representing the judiciary, or 106.

Some Are Small

Some of them are small, so small in fact that they are not regarded as departments in practical terms. But they exist, they spend money, and they have the dignity of separate identity by force of law.

The number, moreover, has increased by 20 agencies during the last decade. When the state was organized there were only eight departments. In 1900, there were 39.

There are now about 28,000 officers and employees in those agencies, including an unspecified number of seasonal and part-time workers. The number within the civil service system is about 17,000.

Politicians in both parties are wondering about the stubborn insistence of Sen. Alexander Wiley in defeating in Washington last week the confirmation of John Green as collector of the customs at the port of Superior-Duluth. Wiley is known to have resisted considerable pressure on Green's behalf, some of it from local Republican sources. Apparent purpose was to assure Dr. George Sundquist, an Eisenhower appointee, tenure that will permit him to obtain pension entitlement. Sundquist was once a power in Wisconsin Republican politics and once headed the board of regents of state colleges.

For Green his defeat — although it may be temporary — is a painfully ironic one. He is one of the deans of the Democratic party of the state, and one of the very few men in Democratic politics still active who was a recognized Wisconsin Democratic politician in early New Deal Times.

There are signs that the medical practitioners of Wisconsin, normally indifferent to such practical aspects of politics as the need for money to fuel campaigns, are becoming campaign contributors.

Worry Over Medicare

The manifest reason is the worry in the profession about the public medical care issue. There is now a state-wide political action organization for doctors and related professional workers, but details of its activities have not yet been reported.

Why should President Kennedy risk a test of his popularity in this state by coming here to campaign for Democratic candidates, when he lost it by a decisive margin in 1960? The reasoning goes like this: historically the party in power loses in the off-year elections. If the President makes no scores here — or elsewhere in the country — the result will be marked up as a continuation of the historical tradition. But if he should pick up even a single congressman, it would be an enormous boost to his prestige and power as a refutation of the historical rule.

Philip Kuehn, the Republican nominee for governor, has been careful to speak respectfully of Gov. Gaylord Nelson's proud Outdoor Recreation Program, which was enacted with Republican votes in the 1961 legislature.

Program Planned

But Kuehn has some improvements in mind, should he be elected to the executive office. He will ask the legislature to expand the scope of spending authority to launch a big "crash" program for a out stream rehabilitation, among other things.

One of the significant straws in the wind on the public opinion directions on tax issues, according to many politicians, was the top-heavy vote recently by delegates at the Wisconsin Towns Association convention in favor of a general sales tax with credits to finance the state budget deficit and local property tax relief.

These men are experts in the political climate of their neighborhoods. They must defend each day of the year, among their immediate neighbors, the rising property tax burdens on farmers and others.

Some of Gov. Nelson's position papers, as they are called, in his campaign for U.S. Senator show expert collaboration, as in his long and expert discussion of Latin American affairs the other day.

The explanation is that Nelson has more collaboration and assistance from the specialists of the University of Wisconsin faculty than any man who has held high office in the state since the days of Philip F. LaFollette nearly 30 years ago.

It is virtually impossible for the active candidate for political office nowadays to avoid the cocktail circuit, and sometimes that pattern contains perils for the unwary. One political group in the state today is deeply worried about signs of excessive indulgence by one candidate.

Cocktail Tricks

The seasoned politician finds ways to avoid the debilitating effects of the hospitality parties the local partisans are so fond of holding for the visiting stumpers. One veteran usually has a private word with the host or hostess,

School Bus Driver Pulls Off Road, Dies
AMBLER, Pa. (AP)—David H. Pinkett, 59, fell ill as he turned his loaded school bus off the expressway and headed for nearby Oreland.

He swerved to the shoulder of the road, put on the brake, turned off the ignition and slumped over the wheel—dead of a heart attack. Police said his action Monday halted the bus, with 28 pupils aboard, a few feet from an embankment from which it could have plunged 30 feet to railroad tracks.

Grange Installs 1963 Officers At Greenville

GREENVILLE—Subordinate officers were installed at the South Greenville Grange Saturday evening with Paul Porter, installing officer.

Mrs. Royden Hart was installing marshal, and LuAnn Ihde and Cheryl Becker from Allenville were emblem bearer and regalia bearer, respectively.

Flag bearer was Mavis Porter, installing master, Kenneth Julius, installing chaplain, Loyall Larson, Ed Wege, soloist, and Mrs. Robert Schroeder, pianist.

The lecturer, Mrs. Wendell Breitenbach, and Pomona lecturer, Mrs. Truman Shelley, will attend the Great Lakes State Lecturer's Conference at Spencer, Ind., Nov. 26, 27 and 28.

The next meeting will be Oct. 27 with reports on the state sessions.

Guitar Virtuoso To Appear Tonight On Perry Como Show

Television viewers will get their first taste of the Brazilian bossa nova beat that is becoming so popular when guitarist Charlie Byrd is featured tonight on Perry Como's Music Hall Show.

Byrd, a classically oriented jazz guitarist, became enthusiastic about the delicate harmonies of the bossa nova during a tour of South America for the State Department last year. Byrd currently has two best-selling albums out featuring the bossa nova, the most recent being "Latin Impressions" on the Riverside label. The guitarist studied with maestro Andres Segovia. He played three original scores for David Brunkley's Journal last season.

For the Como appearance, Charlie Byrd and his Quartet will be joined by tenor sax star Stan Getz. Other guests include Lena Horne and Carol Haney.

Supermarket Wants $5,464 'Bonus' Back; It Was Unintentional

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP)—That $5,464 a customer found in his grocery bag was an unintentional bonus and should be returned, says food mart owner Maury Guy. He reported to police Monday that he had put the amount in a paper bag for depositing in a bank when some customers came in. Guy said he put the bag by the check stand and waited on the shoppers. When he had checked out their bags, he found his also missing.

Child's Food Can Make Him Obese

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

"Sir: When a child weighs 175 pounds at the age of 12, what should be done to reduce?"

"Mrs. N.G.:" That is approximately twice the normal weight, and a child of 12 should not be allowed to get that fat.

But after it has happened, what to do about it? Dr. Molner: First, take a straight forward look at the basic fact: children get fat for the same reason as adults. They eat more than they need, and exercise less than they should.

Obesity in children isn't uncommon. Some studies indicate that about 10 per cent of children are overweight if neither parent is fat. With one obese parent, the child has a 40 per cent chance of being too heavy. With two obese parents, it's an 80 per cent chance. In short, a great many children are heavier than they should be.

What causes them to eat too much and exercise too little? Faulty living and eating patterns and habits. A child eats the kind of food he is given. If he gets mostly high calorie foods he will be overweight. If snacks and candy are handy without limit, that's important. If he always has someone driving him to school or church or his Scout meeting, instead of being brought up to walk or ride his bike that also hurts.

Build Variation There is, of course, variation in build — some parents have large frames and heavy bones. So will their children, and they will be heavier than others of the same height. But not a great deal more. Unquestionably, we inherit bodies which handle fat in somewhat different ways. Some people CAN eat more than others without getting fat. This still doesn't change the basic fact: if anyone gets fat, he is eating too much for HIM.

In children especially (but in adults, too) there is often a reason, beyond family habit, for overeating. It is psychological. He eats too much to make up for something he feels subconsciously that he is lacking. Sometimes a death in the family can cause great sadness. Or there is bickering in the family, even cruelty.

If You Would Be PERFECT ... "Come, Follow Me!"

In these words Our Lord makes it clear that merely to believe in Him is not enough. Not do we fulfill our Christian obligations just by keeping the Commandments... by confessing our sins... by giving thanks for our blessings.

We are, instead, admonished repeatedly in the Scriptures to strive earnestly for spiritual perfection. "You therefore are to be perfect; even as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Matthew 5:48). "...as the One who called you is holy be you also holy in all your behavior" (1 Peter 1:15-16).

If you think, as some do, that the Catholic Church has too many devotions, ceremonies and obligations for its members, be assured that they have a purpose. That purpose is to nurture and expand the spiritual life of the faithful—to guide them through the "narrow gate that leads to life"—to help them save their souls.

But spiritual perfection also promises great rewards in this life, too. "Godliness," St. Paul wrote to Timothy (1 Timothy 4:8), "is profitable in all respects, since it has the promise of the present life as well as of that which is to come." This "promise" does not refer to material things—to a better job or a more profitable business—but to infinitely more important things.

It was these blessings the rich young man sought when he asked Jesus what... beyond believing and keeping the Commandments... "is wanting to me?" He did not accept Our Lord's invitation to "Come, follow me," because it required the sacrifice of his material possessions.

SUPREME COUNCIL KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS RELIGIOUS INFORMATION BUREAU 4222 LINDBELL BLVD. ST. LOUIS 8, MISSOURI or a feeling of being "left" either by family or playmates.

As the over eating child gets fatter, others ridicule him. He doesn't measure up in games with playmates. He eats still more as he tries to compensate for his unhappiness.

Glandular Disorders Only rarely do glandular disorders play a role. True, the greatly overweight child should be checked for such abnormality, but don't expect it to be found. So do these things:

See that he exercises and does not just sit or ride.

Reduce his calories. He needs protein for growth and to satisfy his appetite, but limit starches and sugars. Instead of rich desserts, substitute fruit. At 1,000 to 1,200 calories he will begin to lose. But no snacks, or the calorie total rises.

Analyze Attitudes Try to analyze his attitudes. Is he unhappy over something? Explain to him why reducing will help. Rebuild his self-confidence and self-respect.

You can do all of these things without resorting to "pills."

"Dear Dr. Molner: For the last year I have been suffering from an intensely rapid-beating heart and have lost 20 pounds, although I eat well. The doctors say my heart is perfect. I am 76."

—MRS. M. K. Subtle hyperthyroidism (over activity of the thyroid gland) is not uncommon among older people, yet it can easily be overlooked. It can cause rapid heart beat. So can caffeine, if you are a coffee-drinker. You might try switching to a coffee substitute, and if there is no improvement, see your doctor. The thyroid could need some mild medicating.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is it normal for teen-age girls to be irregular in their periods the first couple of years? — B. T."

It is very common, and in time usually straightens itself out. (Copyright 1962)

Two Women Put on Probation for Year For Shoplifting

Two women were sentenced to one year probation for shoplifting Tuesday. They appeared in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2.

Mrs. Neva Gendron, 41, 912 S. Walden Ave., and Mrs. Ann Spreeman, 22, 307 E. Wilson St., were arrested by Appleton police Friday after they took $12 in groceries from an Appleton supermarket without paying.

The two women pleaded guilty to the charge Monday and were ordered held without bond in the Outagamie County jail overnight until sentencing.

Good Time Scored at Top Hats Party

Riverview Country Club was the setting Saturday evening for the Top Hat Dance Club's fall dinner dance. A football theme was carried out in the decorations. Party plans were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Owen Kuehmsted and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Preston, co-chairmen.

Serving as committee members were Dr. and Mrs. William Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hanegraaf, Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Haza, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kolosso, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meiers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pettegrew, Mr. and Mrs. William Wahlers and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Washburn.

Banners of the Professional football teams decorated the tables at the Top Hats Dance Club fall dinner dance Saturday evening. Above are Dr. and Mrs. William Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pettegrew.

Nobody Really kept score at the Top Hats party Saturday evening, except to note that a good time was the club's goal. Above are Howard Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Kuehmsted. At right, Mr. and Mrs. R. Barton Hammond pay a personal call on chef Dezso Tornyoosy in his kitchen empire. (Post-Crescent Photos)

At Right, Mrs. Harry Muench helps her husband with his name tag. The couple was among those who attended the party at Riverview Country Club. A dance was held after the dinner.

Jericho Setting for Wedding

JERICHO — Miss Loretta B. Freund, Fond du Lac, became the bride of Anthony H. Koenigs at 11 a.m. Saturday at Holy Trinity Catholic Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Freund. Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Koenigs, Marytown, are the bridegroom's parents. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Tuschel.

The bride's sister, Miss Carol Freund, acted as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Freund, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Ronald Rabe, Kiel, the bridegroom's sister.

Lawrence Koenigs, Marytown, was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Daniel Koenigs, Marytown, also a brother of the bridegroom, and Ronald Rabe. Guests were seated by Nicholas Koenigs, Marytown, the bridegroom's brother, and Wilbert Klapperich, Calvary, a cousin of the bride.

A wedding dinner, supper, reception and dance were held at Steiner's Hall, Marytown.

After a honeymoon in the western states, the couple will live at 325 N. Macy St., Fond du Lac.

The bride is employed at A. C. Nielson Co., Fond du Lac. Her husband is an electrician at Petri Electric Co., Fond du Lac.

Couple to Reside in West Africa

Boni Hills, Liberia, West Africa, will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Rehfeldt. The couple exchanged nuptial vows in a 4 p.m. double ring ceremony Saturday at St. John Lutheran Church, Luxemburg. The Rev. T. H. Hilgendorf officiated.

The bride is the former Miss Judith Ann Tremi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor E. Tremi, Casco. Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Rehfeldt, 610 E. Grant St., are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Wilbur O. Doell attended as matron of honor.

Best man was Roderick Kunz, Oshkosh. The bride's brother, Anton Tremi, Casco, and Ronald Wichman, Red Granite, seated the guests.

A reception was held at the Lucky 13 Club, Luxemburg. The couple will honeymoon in California, England and France.

The bride, a graduate of Casco High School, was employed at the And Association for Lutherans, Appleton. Her husband was graduated from Appleton High School and Lawrence College. He is employed at the Liberia Mining Co., Boni Hills.

The next meeting date was changed to Nov. 1.

PIN-WORMS A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms, ugly parasites that medical experts say infect 1 out of every 8 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... small, easy-to-take tablets... special sizes for children and adults.

Strapping Good Workout

Reducing exercises given in this column off the boredom of solitary column often call for the use of a workout.

flexible strap or a rigid object. Too, a prop forces you to greaten effort for it resists your actions in much the same way as a boxer's sparring partner, and so you automatically put more light into your motions.

Not every routine can be performed with a prop, some should not be. But when use is indicated, follow along. Whether you wish to reduce or simply keep in trim, these strap exercises should be a part of your repertoire.

1. With hands 24 inches apart hold strap high overhead. Alternately pull it taut and let it fall limp. (Fine for firming arms and upper back.)

2. Stretch out back down on floor and cradle arches in strap. Pull legs up to perpendicular position, lower to floor by pushing against strap. (Smooths legs, abdomen and upper hip.)

3. From starting position above, come to an erect sitting position and then slowly back to Miller in case of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and five cents in coin to cover handling.

Your Problems Ex-Mother-in-Law Should be Allowed to See Grandchildren

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What can I do about a husband who insists on maintaining what he calls "a wonderful relationship" with his former mother-in-law?

When I married Everett he had custody of his children. So now, under one roof we have his children, my children and our children. Everett invites his mother-in-law to baby-sit when ever we go out. She loves it and would cancel anything to be with "her angels." I've told him I don't like it, but he ignores me.

When I divorced Nick I severed relations with his parents because I feared their presence would be embarrassing to Everett. Now I think Everett should do as much for me.

He reads your column every day. Please print this letter and your comments, so he can see it.

—R. C.

DEAR R. C.: Here's the letter but I'm afraid when you see my answer you'll ditch the paper.

I think your husband is right. Why should this grandmother be deprived of seeing her daughter's children just because the girl and her husband made a mess of their marriage?

Too often grandparents are completely buried under the rubble and ashes of a divorce. I hope your letter and my reply will open a few eyes around the country and provide a better shake for the old folks.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm a widow 34 years old who has been going with a bachelor for five years. I'm not writing to ask why he doesn't marry me. I know what I want to know is would it be all right if my fiancé took me and my 8-year-old son on a five-day motor trip to see Mt. Rushmore? Ronnie has been wanting to see Mt. Rushmore for a long time and my fiancé said he would like to drive us.

We would be staying in motels, and Ron and my fiancé would share one room and I'd be in another. Ron knows we have been going together for a long time and that one day we'll get married.

I hope you will see the educational value in this trip and say it's all right. Ronnie wants to make a report on this to his class. Thank you.—Mother Bee

DEAR Mother: This trip could have more educational value than you think. Your son's report to the class might start: "This man that my mother goes with..."

It is not proper for unmarried people to travel together (even with an 8-year-old chaperon). After you and your fiancé have taken that trip to the altar you can travel anywhere together. But not until.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Every time this question comes up I get hot under the collar. I say when etiquette doesn't match common sense, it ought to be chucked out the window.

Some of the so-called authorities on good manners criticize the practice of giving money as a wedding gift. They say it is gauche, crass, unimaginative, and vulgar.

As a newlywed who has just been through the mill, I say these authorities are cracked. How I wish some of my relatives who gave us useless pieces of trivia had given us money instead.

We did receive some checks—going with a bachelor for five years. I'm not money-grubbing people, but believe me every check we received was greatly appreciated.

When I wrote to thank these individuals I told them what Glen and I planned to buy with their

'Ragged Urchin' Steals Way Into Hearts of Pair

BY JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—What would you do if your doorbell rang, and when you answered there stood a ragged urchin wanting to come in just to look around?
It happened to Josef Berger four years ago. His life hasn't been the same since.

lin absorbed every inch of the Berger's comfortable living room and said: "It's beauty here." This was Berger's introduction to the picturesque speech that is all Poppo's, and to his questioning little mind as well.
Berger stuffed the scrawny, 6-year-old Puerto Rican lad with as much food as he thought safe, then told him he was a writer and couldn't work with anyone around. But Poppo could come again—sometime.

Poppo did. The next day. That began the regular visits, which in time, against his better judgment, Berger began to look forward to. Then came the day, a few months later, when Poppo announced: "Joe, I want you to be my father."

Upset Easy Routine
This understandably did not arouse much enthusiasm in Berger or his wife, Dottie, an attractive couple in their fifties with a married daughter and a grand-daughter they adored. They were quite happy as they were, Josef writing books and speeches, Dottie working as chief researcher for a magazine for doctors. Why upset their peaceful household with a pint-sized dynamo that could make a whirlwind seem a sluggish zephyr?

But they hadn't reckoned on the determination of a child from a poverty-stricken, broken home who wanted something better from life. At that time he was living, along with a brother and four sisters, in one of the remaining slum houses in otherwise well-to-do Brooklyn Heights. And although he was deeply attached to his pretty young mother, he fastened on to the Berbers with fierce affection.

They resisted, but last fall when Poppo was 9, they took him into their home on a trial basis before legally adopting him.

Torn Between Homes
"For three months," says Berger, "he lived with us. He tried

Writer Josef Berger is shown in New York with Poppo, the 10-year-old Puerto Rican lad Berger met four years ago. The boy came into the lives of Berger and his wife, Dottie, when he rang the doorbell of their apartment in Brooklyn and asked to come in to look around. The Berbers considered adopting Poppo, but he's gone back to live with his mother. He visits the couple weekends as a 'remember of the family.' (AP Wirephoto) very hard to be what he called 'a remember of the family.'"

But after weekends with his mother, who had moved with the children to another section of Brooklyn, he would come back to the Berbers and eat his heart out to be with her again. "It was tearing him apart," says Berger. "It was his decision to go back. But there was no decision really. It was like a fish going back to where it was born."

That was nearly a year ago—and that's where a book Berger wrote about the experience and called "Poppo" ends. But the book, just published and with part of its royalties slated for a trust fund for the boy's education, doesn't end the story of Poppo. He still visits the Berbers on weekends.

"He'll always be 'a remember of the family,' and a joy to us," says Berger.

Taught to Read
The other day a visitor dropped in and found Dottie-Berger busily mending a small blue sweater. "Well," she explained, "his moth-

The Ailing House Cracks in Plaster Can Be Repaired

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: We have just built a new house, making sure it was built strong. The rock lath was fitted with no spaces. About two months after the plastering, we painted the ceilings and found small cracks in practically every room. Now, after several more months have passed, there are more cracks in two of the rooms. What could be causing these cracks? The walls are perfect except for a few cracks in the corners.

A: No matter how strongly built, all new houses settle on their foundations: this may continue for several months. Because plaster is brittle, cracking occurs with any distortion of the supporting frame or shrinkage of the woodwork; these usually appear in corners. Cracks should be repaired after house settlement has ended. Make a pencil mark at the ends of the cracks, making new marks as cracking progresses. When cracking has stopped for a month, repairs can be made.

Uncemented Crawl Space
Q: We have purchased a split level home with a crawl space. At the time of construction, we were unfamiliar with the crawl space and would have had it cemented. Now it is completed and difficult to cement because it is about 40 inches high. Will there be any problem from dampness or odors. The builder placed a plastic sheet over the dirt floor of the crawl space.

A: If there is adequate air circulation and ventilation in the rise of moisture from the ground, crawl space there should be no problem from dampness. Vents should be provided in each wall of the crawl space, the openings proof undercoat be used where being at least large enough to rust already exists? What will provide one square foot for each 300 square feet of ground area. The plastic sheet (I assume it is polyethylene, four to six mils wool and turpentine; tight rust in thickness) serves the same purpose as cement, to prevent the rise of moisture from the ground. proof red primer containing fish oil, applied according to label directions. Today's Etiquette

BY LOUISE DAVIS

FRATERNITY FLING

Boys, are you planning to ask your best girl to your college week-end fraternity fling? I'm sure you know your don'ts. But there are a few things that you as young gentlemen should do to pave the way.

Whether or not you have met your girl's parents, by all means write her mother a note assuring her and the father that their Kathy will be in good hands. Although they may already know some of the plans and details, tell them what arrangements you have made concerning her quarters and assure them of chaperonage. If all of the fraternity men will be moving out for the invading army of girls, remind the parents that a chaperone is being provided.

When your girl arrives on the scene, keep in mind that you are her host at all times. That means being thoughtful, solicitous and considerate. You are responsible for all meals while she is there and you also pay for her room if she isn't staying at the fraternity house. It should be assumed that she or her parents pay the traveling expenses unless the parents insist on doing it themselves.

If your program will be a happy hectic one, offer to give your girl a breathing spell for a little rest, but do it in such a way that she won't think that she's missing something! You may need a little breather yourself!

that the basic cause is internal. While I can't give it a specific name, I can give a specific remedy. Steroids, either alone or in conjunction with tranquilizers, given internally or injected usually correct this condition. Certain fatty acids also help. SEAMS TO ME

By Patricia Scott

Skirt hems always look neater if the extra fullness along the edge is eliminated before finishing the hem.

Q. I have a problem with a circular skirt. I am 5 feet tall and have to shorten a 11 skirts. Will you tell me what to do so I don't have to put tucks in the hem? Thank you.

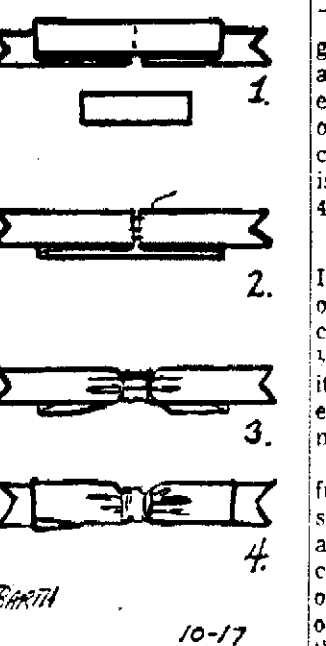

A. First, finish your raw hem edge with seam binding or by turning edge under 1/4 inch and top stitching. Then, stitch around the hem about 1/4 inch from the edge, using about 10 stitches per inch. Pull the thread at both ends forming gathers, until the hem edge fits the skirt. Be sure to adjust this fullness as evenly as possible all around the hem. Pin the hem seam lines to the skirt seam lines and steam press to shrink out as much of the fullness as possible. Then finish your hem as you would normally.

Questions On Sewing

seem to be sewed together instead of being tied.

A. Use either a double strip of fabric or a piece of ribbon. Cut one long piece for bow and one short piece for tab. For a bow with two loops and two ends, the strip should be three times the length of the bow. For a bow with four loops and no ends the strip should be four times the length of the bow. The tab should be twice as long as the finished width of the bow. To make: Mark center of strip and fold bow as in Fig. 1. Whip folded ends together as in Fig. 1. Wrap tab around center of bow, folding one end of tab under and lapping it over the other. Slip-stitch tab closed securely as in Fig. 3. Finished bow should look like Fig. 4.

Q. I have trouble with sleeves. It says to ease in fullness at top of sleeve, make a row of machine stitching along seam line 1/4 inch inside seam line. When it is finished, I always have gathers that show. How do you eliminate this?

A. Just gathering in the extra fullness is not enough. You must shrink out the extra fullness with a steam iron. Place the sleeve cap on the end of a sleeve board or tailor's cushion. With the point of the steam iron facing towards the body of the sleeve, gently press over the gathers again and again until fullness disappears. This method works well on most fabrics, but it isn't always successful with synthetics or wash-wear fabrics.

Control Yourself When A Headache Makes You Tense, Irritable

Take the Ingredients 3 out of 4 Doctors Recommend for Headache Pain. In Minutes—the Pain Goes, Also Its Tension and Irritability.

New York, N. Y. — It's a medical fact that pain from a tension headache can make people so irritable and highstrung they lose control of their tempers and take it out on those around them.

That's why tense, nervous headaches call for the stronger yet safer medication in Anacin®. Be sure it's Anacin you take because Anacin is like a doctor's prescription. That is, it's a combination of ingredients. Anacin goes to work instantly to relieve the pain and its tension and irritability. In minutes you feel 'great' — in control again and all without tranquilizers or narcotics of any kind.

Here's why Anacin gives such fast, long-lasting and more complete relief. Anacin is different and contains extra ingredients missing in aspirin and still missing with buffering. Extra ingredients which 3 out of 4 doctors recommend and which many doctors themselves take when they have headache pain.

It's this big difference in Anacin (the extra medication) that makes the big difference in the way you feel. Anacin Tablets contain no narcotics, do not form a habit or leave one depressed. They do not irritate or upset the stomach.

See if the stronger yet safer medication in Anacin doesn't work better for you!

DESIGNER PATTERN

A-2199

Ceil Chapman sparks a soft glow of late-day fashion with cross currents of drapery, caught up at one side then released into a gently swinging panel over the slender skirt. As a perfect complement to this fluid line, the bodice is a pointedly simple affair of no sleeves, straight-across neck and mild blousing at the banded waistline.

For a dress that moves successfully from season to season with only a change of fabric, you might choose a mat-finished satin, brocade, silk faille or lacy wool for important little evenings now, adding a dash of festive glitter at the waist with a dazzling brooch or a jeweled button. A shadow-sheer cotton or silk would be delightfully cool and pretty for southern resort wear. From these corresponding body measurements, select the one size best for you. Our sizing is comparable to that used for better ready-to-wear.

Dr. Kelsey's Obstnacy Adds Name to Hero Roster

BY RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal bureaucracy, butt of many a joke and gibe, can boast that in this year 1962 it produced an authentic heroine, a female knight in shining armor.

Frances Oldham Kelsey, M.D., Ph. D., doesn't look much like a knightess. She's a plain Jane in flat-heeled shoes, with no lipstick, and she has the seemingly unromantic job of physician and pharmacist for the Food and Drug Administration.

But, by now, most everybody knows how, in one of the most from the bill and it breezed through Congress.

Dr. Kelsey was among the honored guests looking on when Kennedy signed the measure Oct. 10.

Thus, Dr. Kelsey has taken her place on the roster of notable warriors for safe, effective drugs and wholesome food—a roster including such men as:

Upton Sinclair, Socialist uplifter who couldn't make much of a dent with his Socialist propaganda but did play a mighty role in the passage of a meat inspection act and the nation's first pure food and drug law, in 1906.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, an M.D. with an evangelical fervor for unadulterated food. As chief chemist for the Agriculture Department (1883-1912) he conducted his fight by "poison squad" tactics and other means, and was the first administrator of the pure food law.

Stirred the Public

Samuel Hopkins Adams, freelance reporter and muckraker extraordinary. Nothing, not even attempted blackmail, could deter him from pursuing the quacks and nostrums of his day. His series "The Great American Fraud" began appearing in Collier's Oct. 7, 1905, and had great impact. It was accompanied by charming illustrations, such as a grinning skull with patent medicine bottles for teeth.

In 1906 Sinclair published a novel "The Jungle". It was about the Chicago stockyards and was designed to forward socialism by enlisting sympathy for downtrodden stockyard workers. It didn't do that, but it did turn the stomach of America by its descriptions of the unwholesome conditions under which meat was being produced.

Dr. Wiley, in 1902, established what the newspapers immediately dubbed "the poison squad." It was composed of rugged young volunteers, mostly employees of the agriculture department. In a basement dining room in his bureau, he fed them food to which preservatives, coloring and other substances had been added.

The public interest was so intense that "my poison squad laboratory became the most highly advertised boarding-house in the world," Wiley wrote in his autobiography.

Bureau Still Small

Wiley's conclusion was flat: "Preservatives used in foods are harmful to health." Modern scientists would take some exceptions to this; some preservatives now are pronounced all right.

When Wiley became chief chemist of the Agriculture Department in 1883, he began with two or three laboratory assistants and a secretary. The Food and Drug Administration, now part of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, has 2,684 employees today.

It is thus still a midget agency, as federal bureaus go, but it is not a midget in brainpower. On its rolls are physicians, physicists, pharmacists, veterinarians, pathologists, pharmacologists, bacteriol-

The Golden Years

How Not to Retire With Your Nest Egg

BY THOMAS COLLINS

Such a small gap between the $392 a year income they now get from the savings and the $1,000 a year they want.

There are other problems for the couple. They will find that six months of renting in the sunshine will get them new friends and few social invitations. The faces they come to know will forget, or be gone, after they go back home for six months. And it is people more than temperature that make retirement good.

Collins

Something similar will happen in the old neighborhood back home. Friends at retirement age go away or die. Those who remain pick up a new life that has little room for somebody who spends six months of the year somewhere else.

And it is not good for a house to leave it locked up six months of the year.

Suggestions Made
Some suggestions for this couple:
Ask a good life insurance company what kind of deal it can give you on a lifetime annuity for your $21,000. This may be the highest income you can get. If this doesn't suit you, stick with savings and loan. Don't start eating up $1,000 a year.

Consider renting in the sunshine for only January, February and March each year, instead of six months, then close up your house and leave it. You can maintain your neighborhood contacts this way.

Or consider renting in the sunshine for nine months a year, make it the nine months of the school year and leasing out your home to teachers. You can make ton, D. C. He wouldn't have settled for less than 800 points when he doubled two hearts.

When the smoke cleared, however, West was glad to get 200 points. It took very careful defense to defeat South at all.

West started out with three rounds of trumps, trying to reduce the hand to no trump. East discarded the eight of diamonds on the third trump, and West did some thinking.

Diamonds Located
By this time the diamonds were all located. East had doubled two diamonds to show length and strength in the suit. If East could now afford to part with a diamond, he must have started with the missing four cards in the suit.

If South had no diamonds, West had to rely on his own tricks in spades, hearts, and clubs. It would be fatal to lead a diamond, since that would give declarer a trick that he couldn't win for himself.

West's only safe exit from his hand was a low spade. South took two spade tricks and continued with the seven of spades. Now West had to step up with the king of spades and get out safely with his last spade.

By this time West had taken four tricks and needed two more to defeat the contract. He refused to win when South led the king of clubs. The only way to defeat the contract was to sit back with the A-J of clubs and wait for two more tricks.

It was quite reasonable for West to double two hearts, especially after this partner had doubled two diamonds for penalties. But once the play began West had to adjust himself to reality. Any attempt to make a fortune would actually allow South to bring his doubled contract home.

and keep friends in the sunshine this way.

Don't flit around in the sunshine. Pick one community and stay with it, whether for three months or nine. Only in this way can you cultivate permanent friends.

Finally, consider leasing out your house for a year and shoot the works on the sunshine country, with a view toward making it a year-around home. Half-North and Half-South couples are seldom as content as the couples who pick one or the other and stay put, and they're usually twice as weary, since traveling back and forth becomes a both-er not too long after 65.

Sheinwold Doubles Can Fail

Don't go to the bank until you have the money ready to deposit. It's not quite the same thing to have a strong feeling that you're about to strike it rich. This applies particularly to penalty doubles at the bridge table.

West thought his ship had come in when this hand came along in a recent tournament in Washington.

New London Worker Dies Of Suffocation

Buried Under Coal While Unloading Car

NEW LONDON — A 41-year-old employee of a farmer's supply concern was buried under 500 pounds of coal while unloading a car alone here Monday afternoon.

Harvey Bradley, 413 W. Jennings St., was found by two co-workers at New London Co-op Exchange, 305 E. Wolf River Ave., who saw Bradley's leg sticking from the coal as they investigated the unattended car. The workers, George Campbell and Harold Seifer, tried to dig Bradley out.

The New London Fire Dept. applied artificial respiration when the body was recovered. Bradley was pronounced dead by Dr. John Monsted.

Outagamie County Coroner Bernard H. Kemps listed cause of death as asphyxiation from coal dust after an autopsy was performed Monday night. Kemps said he ordered the autopsy to determine if the death may have been caused by injuries Bradley may have received when he fell from the coal car. Sheriff Robert F. Heinritz assisted in the investigation.

Survivors include the widow, two daughters, a son and five sisters. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, New London, with the Rev. Walter E. Pankow officiating. Burial will be in Floral Hill Cemetery, New London.

Menasha Council Final Action On Rezoning

MENASHA — Final action on the rezoning of the Wanserski and Smith properties on Sixth Street from residential district to commercial district was postponed to Nov. 7 during Tuesday night's meeting of the Menasha City Council.

The postponement came after the question was broached as to whether a specification limiting ingress or egress (in this instance on School Court) can be incorporated in the subject rezoning ordinance.

The question was shunted to City Atty. Richard J. Steffens, but he declined to render what he termed an "off the cuff" legal opinion until he had further time to study the matter. Final action on the rezoning ordinance was, as a result, postponed.

In other major business Tuesday night, the Menasha Council approved payment on six current bills for municipal work: $443.84 to McMahon Engineering Company for storm sewer work, $8,169.52 to Chapel & Amundson for storm sewer work, $2,844.60 to John Skotske for curb, gutter and sidewalk work, $3,707.28 to Charles A. Green & Son, Inc., for sanitary sewers, $200 to Central Contracting Corp. for storm sewer work (final payment), and $3,024 to Lauer Brothers, Inc., for Menasha police station remodeling work.

The Council also approved a request by Harry Kargus, Menasha Park superintendent, that he be allowed to attend next week's park budget hearings conducted by the Council.

Committee Members Named

Refreshments for the party are planned by Katie Gajewski, Jean Drzewiecki, Phyllis Akstulewicz, Marcia De Long, Carol Prange and Kathy Pawlowski.

Chaperones for the party will be the freshman class advisors. Class officers are Don Steffin, president, Katie Gajewski, vice-president; Frances Swiontek, secretary, and Paulette Strong, treasurer.

LOOSE MONEY AND MARRIAGE TALK SOMETIMES PAYS OFF

DEAR CY: The bachelor next door never made any money, but he likes to tell me how it can be done. When I work in the garden, he keeps talking over the fence about a girl friend of his in Connecticut who opened her own candle shop. He claims she took a mail course in making decorative candles. Her candles sold so fast she opened her shop, and gives lessons in candle-making to women's clubs. The club members pay for her lessons. They use their candles for gifts, or sell them themselves or through her store, giving her a commission. I asked for the girl friend's address so I could get the details on the candle course. He doesn't want to write her, so can you tell me if there is such a course? How much does it cost?

DEAR AMY: This gentleman must feel marriage, like money, is for conversation purposes. He's wrong! The Candle Institute, in Fallbrook, California, offers a comprehensive course in candle-making. Paid in cash, the cost is $58. Installment plans are slightly higher. Fancy candles are strong in the gift business but practically unexploited as a home craft. It offers individuals a unique way to profit from their energies and creativity.

Renew Pact For Kaukauna Dumping Site

Public Works Okays Contract With Town, Lehrer Brothers

KAUKAUNA — Public works board members voted Monday night to renew a dumping contract for 5 years with the Town of Kaukauna and the Lehrer Brothers. Several aldermen again objected to the dump site.

The old contract expired Oct. 1 and the city has been using the site without a contract since that date. The new contract remains in effect for five years or until a contemplated incinerator to be built by the dump site owners is put into operation.

Change Proposed

If an incinerator is built, according to the contract, a new agreement is to be negotiated. Fourth Ward Ald. Russell Dix proposed a change whereby the city would be permitted to dump for one year at the old site even though an incinerator is built.

This would give the city time to look for a new site if the Lehrer Brothers made unreasonable cost demands for using the incinerator, stated Dix. He also questioned how the dump owners could be forced to move the site further east in the ravine thus removing it further from the city limits and whether Kaukauna could break the contract if Lehrer's burned garbage rather than covered it as recommended by the state.

Township Responsible

Other aldermen pointed out the agreement permitted the owners to name the area where debris will be dumped and it was the responsibility of the township to see the dump was operated properly.

Third ward alderman George Simon said the city could get no place cheaper or more convenient for dumping and every search for another site had run into a dead end.

Dix indicated he had another rural resident willing to furnish a dump site, but Simon advised him to have the resident clear every possible objection with surrounding property owners' state board of health and township officials before presenting his proposal to the council.

He indicated such offers had been made in the past only to find the Kaukauna council stopped by citizen objections when the time for discussion on the dump site arose. Dix claimed the Lehrer Brothers were responsible for circulating petitions in areas being considered for possible dumping sites by the city.

Upon motion by Simon and seconded by Clarence O'Connor, Second ward alderman, board members voted unanimously to renew the contracts although agreeing to study other offers for dump sites even though an agreement was reached.

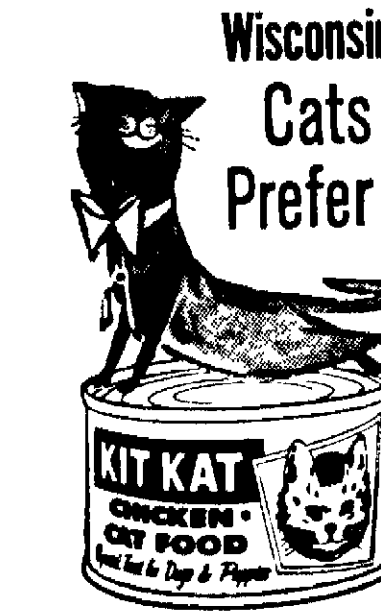

Young Business Man: YOUR CARRIER

Studious-looking Bob Eiting, 303 S. Pine St., Kimberly, Post-Crescent newspaper carrier in that community, may well be grooming himself for the excitement of newspaper photography. At least photography is one of his main interests.

Bob is a two-year veteran as a Kimberly newspaper carrier and has experienced a fine increase in his customers in the area of the 100 to 300 blocks on the east side of S. Pine, the 200 and 300 blocks on S. Willow and the west side of S. Lincoln and portions of First, Second and Third streets in this area.

Bob is an altar boy at Holy Name Catholic church and is now in his sophomore year at Kimberly High School. He enjoys all sports.

The young businessman keeps himself in spending money with profits from his route and, wisely, applies a good portion to a savings account.

State, Federal Rules

Traffic Control Requires More Posts at Corners

Traffic control is getting to be an expensive business for the City of Appleton.

Under new federal and state regulations, there now must be eight posts and traffic signals at the key intersections instead of the present four.

This was disclosed Monday night at a meeting of the council's public safety committee when it approved a traffic control and regulation devices budget for 1963 in the amount of $28,335. The 1962 budget was $20,090.

Compliance a Must

"If you see these poles and traffic signals springing up, it's not the fault of city officials," commented Robert Stumpf, committee chairman, who said Appleton had to comply with the new regulations as do other communities throughout the country.

Under normal circumstances, there are four poles and signals at each intersection. However, under the new regulations, according to Electrical Inspector Fred Volkman, there must be traffic lights facing each line of traffic. Federal and state authorities have set 1970 as the deadline for making the necessary traffic signal revisions. The City of Appleton has 33 intersections to do and it is planned to take care of eight each year.

The purpose of the new regulations, Volkman explained, is to make traffic control and regulation devices standard in every state. This will eliminate overhead controls at intersections, the system used in some states.

It's going to call for additional expenditures in the budget but we have no choice but to comply," Stumpf commented.

First Designated

The Mason Street and College Avenue intersection will be the first to get additional standards and signals.

Those communities that refuse to comply with the new regulations will have federal and state road aids withheld.

The committee disclosed that funds are available to do some work at the Prospect Avenue and Memorial Drive intersection in the near future. When the additional standards are erected which is expected to make a receding lane intersection, there it is also planned to install commendation soon.

The public safety committee also recommended a $14,370 budget for the parking meter operation as submitted by Les Vander, supervisor of parking meters.

"It's a chance for us to get the ball rolling at that intersection," Stumpf commented.

Oshkosh Youth, Oneida Man Hurt In Auto Mishaps

OSHKOSH — Henry Van DeWalle, 62, route 1, Oneida, suffered a cut lip when his car was forced off a road by another car at 12:50 a. m. Wednesday, he told Winnebago County Police.

Van DeWalle's auto hit two culverts after going into the ditch on the right side of the road. He was taken to Theda Clark Hospital by Brown ambulance.

A 15-year old Oshkosh boy suffered head injuries when his bicycle and a car collided on Minnesota Street, south of W. Eighth Avenue, in Oshkosh at 4:11 p. m. Tuesday.

Ardon Farvaar, 440 W. Seventh Ave., was taken to Mercy Hospital by Moore ambulance after the mishap. Norman Oleson, 50, 439 W. 17th Ave., driver of the car, told Oshkosh police he did not see the boy until after the bicycle hit his car on the left front side.

The committee disclosed that funds are available to do some work at the Prospect Avenue and Memorial Drive intersection in the near future. When the additional standards are erected which is expected to make a receding lane intersection, there it is also planned to install commendation soon.

Oneida Tribe Members To Get Annuity Checks

Bureau of Indian Affairs Trying To Bring Tribal Records to Date

Post-Crescent News Service
ONEIDA — All members of the Oneida Indian Tribe, who are eligible for treaty annuity checks of about $5 are urged to help in bringing the tribal roll up to date.

Anyone at least one-fourth Oneida, who is enrolled with the tribe by a Dec. 31 deadline is eligible to receive a payment of about $5 under terms of a 1794 treaty.

Listing Due

The big task facing tribal officers and the Great Lakes agency of the U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs, Ashland, now is to bring tribal records up to date.

For certification by Dec. 31 is a complete listing of an estimated 3,600 Oneidas. The work of recording births and deaths, changes in marital status and addresses is now underway.

It is estimated there are about 2,000 Oneidas in Brown and Outagamie counties, about 800 in the Milwaukee area and another 800 living outside of Wisconsin in Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles and other cities.

K-C English Firm Begins Big Expansion

$5.5 Million Plan Includes New Plant, Machine, Warehouse

NEENAH — Kimberly • Clark Corp. today announced ground-breaking for $5.5 million expansion program which will double cellulose wadding production at Kimberly-Clark Ltd., Larkfield, England.

The expansion includes a third crepe wadding machine and construction of a new plant and warehouse.

Kimberly • Clark Ltd. is a manufacturer of sanitary paper products, including Kleenex tissues. The company is a joint venture of Kimberly-Clark Corp. and Albert E. Reed and Co., Ltd., Britain's major producer of paper, packaging and paper board products.

G. Kenneth Crowell, Kimberly-Clark executive vice president, said the decision to expand follows the biggest sales year in Kimberly-Clark Ltd.'s 10-year history. In the 12 months ended April 30, sales of Kleenex tissues were up a record 27 per cent and Delsey bathroom tissue sales were 29 per cent higher than in the preceding year.

Grocery Firm Expands Plant

Valley Wholesale Builds Addition to Existing Warehouse

An 11,000 square foot addition is being constructed to the S. C. Shannon Co. warehouse, 1726 N. Ballard Rd., Appleton. It will house the Valley Wholesale Cash and Carry division of the wholesale grocery firm.

The cash and carry division currently operates on N. Morrison Street in Appleton.

The 70 by 162 foot addition is being built on the north side of the present warehouse. It will be faced with matching brick and be the same height as the present building.

An under-cover canopy on the west side will be included. Completion date is set for December. The Morrison Street operation will be discontinued when the new addition opens.

No cost was given by company officials, but a $10,000 building permit was issued Tuesday. Valley Wholesale Cash and Carry is a division of the S. C. Shannon Co. and serves merchants who purchase in small lots.

The Shannon Co. built the first unit of the warehouse in 1957 with 62,000 square feet. A 30,000 square foot addition was completed in 1961.

Driver Who Hit Officer Hospitalized

Ronald Pahlke, 25, 806 N. Richmond St., was committed to the state hospital at Waupun Tuesday when he appeared for sentencing in Outagamie County Court Branch 2.

Pahlke pleaded no contest and was found guilty of resisting an officer, damaging a mattress in the Appleton city jail, and reckless driving.

Pahlke struck Outagamie County Patrolman Joseph Vandenoever in the eye and had to be handcuffed and taken to the jail by three officers. He tried to elude Vandenoever's squad car on State 96 and had driven over two lawns and struck a house on Appleton's east side early Saturday morning.

In court, Pahlke asked County Judge Gustave Keller to send him back to Waupun from where he had been paroled three months ago. Pahlke has a nine-year term to serve at the prison. The request was denied by Judge Keller.

Menasha Okays $1,000,000 In Bids for Plant Addition

Rejects Boiler Pump Figure, To Hear Other Firm's Appeal

MENASHA — Joint bid recommendations on $1,022,758 worth of equipment for the planned $2.4 million addition to the Menasha steam generating plant were approved Tuesday night.

The seven bid recommendations represented the joint recommendations on bids reviewed by the Council's board of public works and Menasha's Water and Light Commission last Tuesday.

Of a total of eight equipment bids recommended for Council acceptance Tuesday night, seven were approved unanimously and one was disapproved by a 6-5 vote.

The bid recommendation disapproved was that of Pacific Pumps Co. at $31,790 for three boiler feed pumps, each with 7,500 - pounds per hour capacity.

Set Hearing On $4 Million County Budget

OSHKOSH — Public hearing on the proposed 1963 budget for Winnebago County has been set for Wednesday, Oct. 31 from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1:30 to 1:45 p.m. City Clerk Nell A. Hoffmann announced today.

The budget requests call for expenditures of $5,570,408 which is about $1 million more than this year's final budget.

Such a budget would call for a 2,300,909 tax levy. This would be about $850,000 more than this year's tax levy of $1,446,149. The 1961 tax levy was about $15,000 below that for this year.

After the hearing on the budget, the County Board will begin to review the various requests and make changes in the budgets. One of the major requests is $400,000 for a general recreation area and county park and another is $85,000 for a new farm produce building at the fairgrounds.

Calder Field Interest Bid At 2:36 Rate

MENASHA — A low bid by the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co. Chicago for purchase of 150,000 worth of bonds for construction of Nathan Calder Stadium was approved by the Menasha Council Tuesday night.

Continental Illinois Bank's net interest figure for the anticipated 10-year loan period was quoted at $19,455 for a net effective interest rate of 2.35818 per cent.

Seven other bids were received and opened Tuesday afternoon and tabulated for consideration by the Council during its evening session. The other bidders and their net interest figure and interest rate respectively were:

Goodbody & Co. Chicago $19,336 interest 2.3640 rate Allan Blair & Co. Chicago $19,358 50

2.37072 The Northern Trust Co. Chicago $19,604 50 2.3763 The Illinois Co. Inc. Chicago $19,807 50 2.4009

The Milwaukee Co. Milwaukee Marine National Exchange Bank and the National Manufacturers Bank of Neenah $19,920 4145

The First National Bank of Chicago $19,939 2416648 and Robert W. Baird & Co. Inc., Milwaukee, $20,025 2427272

NEENAH — Purchase of an 86-foot wide strip along the Chicago River Street along Sherry Street was referred back to that committee of way, which had been leased for further checking as to whether by the city as part of Island Park, or such a barrier would impede snow plowing of the city-owned lot at that intersection or would cause the city to have to pay for the purchase of the strip east Nov. 9.

Both the finance committee and was granted St. Gabriel Catholic Church congregation for use on the purchase of the strip east Nov. 9.

A petition from 12 residents on North Water Street and the Fox River channel protesting the loading of trucks at Badger Products Co. and asking that a ramp be built to permit the trucks to be railroad had a chance to sell the property to another party but was while being loaded was referred offering it first to the city be in the public protection committee cause the city had been leasing it for use as part of the park.

Referred to the committee on public works was a petition from 12 Union Street residents asking for a grading of the street as part of the 1963 street budget.

The public building committee also received the request of Ald. Richard Jones for yield right of insurance firm, the claim had way signs to be placed along Oak Street at its intersections with Quarry Lane, Havert Street and Keeler Street.

Board Evaluates Tax Sheltered Annuity

NEENAH — Meeting in conjunction with Will, architects, special committee Tuesday night the Neenah Board of Education evaluated the tax sheltered annuity and the fixtures of a competitor for employees of the public school system and agreed to accept the competitor's fixtures called for an additional cost of $500. The board's buildings and grounds committee will recommend that the base contract be accepted by the board at its Nov. 5 meeting.

Tax sheltered annuity insurance has been available for years, but prior to President Kennedy's clarification of the law in October, 1961, each person buying this insurance was subject to individual study by the Federal Internal Revenue Department.

This insurance is purchased Tuesday night's session of the through payroll deduction before City Council but not before the income tax is paid. Tax is paid topic was subjected to a thorough on the money after age 65 when it was being paid by Menasha aldermen.

The annuity is paid off and the tax advantage lies in reduced in summing up his reasons for seeking personnel re codification come.

In this initial briefing the board of education considered the various insurance plans being of a higher degree of efficiency and ferred how many of the teacher's economy in the department. Tense Nerves Block Bowels

New tonic-tablet laxative acts on colonic muscles... de-constipates overnight.

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body. But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrinks, further aggravating the condition.

Relief doctors say lies in the non-irritating de-constipating principle of a new tonic tablet called Colosain. Of all leading laxatives, only Colosain gives you its special 3 way overnight relief for tension caused constipation. (1) Colosain stimulates your colonic nerve network to further activate and regularize its muscular movement. (2) Colosain's unique re-bulking action helps re-tone tense colonic muscles. (3) Colosain moistens for easy passage without pain or strain.

Colosain relieves even chronic constipation overnight, is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. Get Colosain today. INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Master of National Grange Slams NFO, CED at Oshkosh

Says Farmers Organization Fails to Back Local Units

BY HARRY KURTZ
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

OSHKOSH — Attacks on the National Farmers Organization (NFO) and the Committee on Economic Development (CED) and a defense of the National Grange highlighted the speech of Herschel D. Newsom, Master of the National Grange at the state convention of the Wisconsin Grange in Oshkosh Tuesday night.

The NFO, which seeks to improve farm prices by withholding farm products from the market, was hit by Newsom for its program of putting all support in the national organization while neglecting local organizations.

The CED, a business-supported study group, has proposed that the farm problem be solved by taking two million people off the farm and by eliminating government subsidies.

"I have no patience with the conclusions reached by the committee. It erroneously concluded that the farm problem could be solved by getting people off the farm," Newsom said.

Low income was cited as the reason for the farm problem. Low

Tipsy Driver Pays $200 Fine

Arrested After Oshkosh Accident Friday Afternoon

Joseph Stadler, 61, 14A Church Ave., Oshkosh, was fined $200 Monday by Winnebago County Court Branch 3 Judge James V. Sitter after he pleaded guilty of drunken driving.

Stadler was arrested by Oshkosh police at 1:45 p.m. Friday after he was involved in an accident at Jackson and Division Streets. He tested .21 on the breathalyzer.

President of Waubeek Alumni Association Dies in Kaukauna

Miss Dorothy Appleton, 32, 317 Doty St., Kaukauna, died today after a short illness. She was president of the Waubeek Alumni Association and secretary of the Outagamie County Handicapped Club.

Miss Appleton was born Aug. 14, 1930, in Green Bay. She had been a resident of Kaukauna most of her life.

She is survived by her parents, one brother, three sisters.

Funeral services will be at 9 a.m. Saturday at Holy Cross Catholic Church, Kaukauna, with the Rev. Andrew Quella officiating. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Fargo Funeral Home, Kaukauna, after 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Greenville Grange Rated Fifth in Service Program

OSHKOSH — The South Greenville Grange received fifth place in the Wisconsin Grange's community service program. The farm group received a $25 savings bond and a plaque.

The South Byron Grange (Fond du Lac County) received first place, a $200 bond and plaque. Other winners were Turtle Grange (Rock County), second; Rosendale (Fond du Lac County), third; Tivitz Grange (Walworth County), fourth; and Townline Grange (Rock County) sixth.

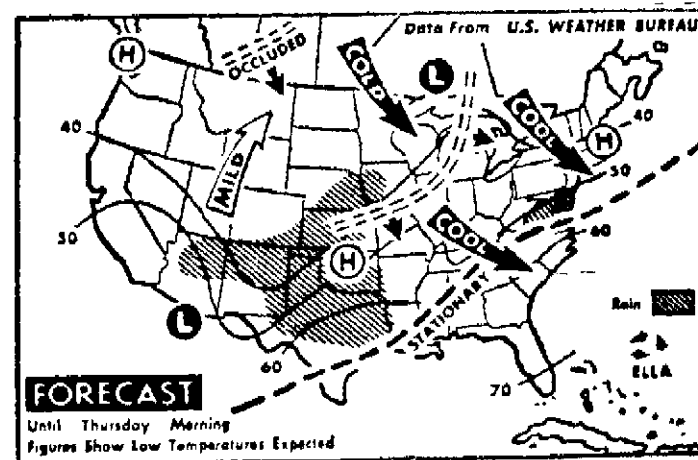

The awards were made by Milo Swanton of the Wisconsin Council of Agriculture.

4 to Attend National Methodist Conference On Family Life

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith and the Rev. and Mrs. James L. Vahey will attend the fourth quadrennial National Methodist Conference on Family Life Friday through Sunday in Chicago, representing St. James Methodist Church.

At least 3,000 delegates are expected, most of them parents and church workers. General theme of the conference is "Jesus Christ, Lord of the Family."

The "Methodist Family of the Year" to be chosen by "Together," Methodist family magazine, will be honored at a reception.

Scattered Light Rain will fall Wednesday night over the central plains states with showers and thunder-showers over the southern plateau and plains states. Some light showers also may occur over the Virginia capes. Cold temperatures will continue to spread Eastward to cover the Mississippi, Ohio and Tennessee valleys and the Lakes and north Atlantic coast states. Some warming will occur over the plateau. Oshkosh Youth Loses 4 Fingers In Feed Chopper OSHKOSH — An 18-year old rural Oshkosh youth lost four fingers on his left hand late Tuesday afternoon when his hand and arm became caught in a feed chopper.

Victim of the accident was Michael Last, route 1, who was working on the Fred Applebee farm, route 2, Omro.

According to Winnebago County Police, Last was checking a roller on the chopper to find out why it was making noise. The glove on his left hand became caught and drew his hand and arm into the machine.

Police worked about one-half hour to free the youth who was taken to Mercy Hospital.

'Terrible Trio' in First Film Together

Messrs. Karloff, Lorre, Price Play In Chiller Based on Poe's 'Raven'

BY BOB THOMAS in mid-London, commuting here for acting dates. Lorre is a charming devotee of good food and wine and one of Hollywood's best raconteurs. Price's love of art is well known; his job as collector of art for sale by Sears Roebuck makes him the greatest patron of art since the Medici. And he's liable to outdistance them. "When I visited 'The Raven' set, all three were exuding an air of congeniality. Their comrade, The Pendulum," "Premature Burial" and "Tales of Terror," for three men who are supposed the film company's policy on Poe is: Evermore.

Really Gentle People Messrs. Karloff, Lorre and Price are oddly cast in their long-run "House of Usher," "The Pit and the Pendulum," "Premature Burial" and "Tales of Terror," for three men who are supposed the film company's policy on Poe is: Evermore.

Naked City Tells Tender Tale of Love

BY TV SCOUT

9-10 (Channel 11) — Naked City may leave you a trifle limp tonight, wrung out by the tragic emotion of a hopeless situation. Maureen Stapleton is the guest star, playing a dying policeman's daughter. Her condition prompts her to attempt suicide, but she is saved.

ness? Imagine—a picture that was made in 1930!

"Actually I made only one out-and-out horror picture, 'The Best with Five Fingers', though I have done a lot of suspense and mystery films, of course."

"It was 'House of Wax' that did it for me," Price explained. "I've done only 10 of the thrill pictures. That's all right with me. This type of picture goes back to what Hollywood used to offer the public—entertainment."

No Regrets Karloff, of course, got into the field with his monster in the original "Frankenstein" (1931). He has been stuck with the old boy ever since and appears to have no regrets.

"It's the best thing in the world for an actor to be typed," he declared. "Shoemakers and other manufacturers struggle for years to establish a trade mark. When an actor can do it with one role, he is extremely fortunate."

"Actors should have specialties and stick with them. You've heard about comedians who yearn to play 'Hamlet.' If they are very unlucky, they sometimes get the chance. They should stick to what they do best."

by Paul Burke, Horace McMahon and Harry Bellaver. The last-named, playing Arcaro, has his biggest part so far in this. He and Miss Stapleton discover a mutual attraction — too late, of course — and it is a tender affair.

6:30-7 (Channel 2) — CBS' continuing pre-election series takes another step with Campaign '62 Progress Report. Correspondents from eight areas report on the latest in each section.

6:30-8 (Channel 4-5) — The Virginian presents another of those stories of the coward who has his moment of bravery in the last reel. George C. Scott is the yellow chap just out from the East where he proved his cowardice in a school fire. Now he's hired to teach in Medicine Bow, and promptly shows his true colors. (Color)

8-9 (Channel 4-5) — Music and dancing are the big items on The Perry Como Show this week. Of chief interest is one of the first lover (a psychiatrist) on a rather exhibition of bossa nova, the new imported-from-Brazil rhythm, on away with her crippled husband (Robert Lansing).

9-10 (Channel 4-5) — For a change, Wendell Corey of The Eleventh Hour is practicing plain old couch-type psychiatry, rather than the courtroom variety. His patient is Barbara Rush, not long out of a mental hospital for trying to kill herself. There are signs that she has resumed that trait. Complicating her life are an ex-husband (David Janssen), a fiancée (Frank Overton) and some account in a book secreted in one of Mary Tyler Moore's gloves and it begins to gnaw on him.

8:30-9 (Channel 2) — The national suspicion of husbands toward wives with separate bank accounts forms the basis for the comedy on The Dick Van Dyke Show this week. Dick finds a $378 account in a book secreted in one of Mary Tyler Moore's gloves and it begins to gnaw on him.

10:20-12 (Channel 4-5) — Tonight's guests are Felecia Sanders, Michele Morgan and Ferdy and Teicher. (Color)

Sid Caesar Can Do Better

Return TV Show Mostly Slapstick, Not Very Funny

NEW YORK (AP)—Sid Caesar is known as a "comedian's comedian," admired for his invention, convincing pantomime and brilliant dialect.

Tuesday night, Caesar returned to television after a long absence with a half-hour show on ABC. For some reason, he ignored his specialties and went in for broad slapstick.

The opening of the show contained one of those English country house mysteries — complete with a crippled man, a young servant girl and a bottle of poisonous pills — to the U.S. this week. "Wanted: Someone Innocent" has Kim Hunter as the evil wife, who plots with her husband (a psychiatrist) on a rather involved murder scheme to do away with her crippled husband (Robert Lansing).

9-10 (Channel 4-5) — For a change, Wendell Corey of The Eleventh Hour is practicing plain old couch-type psychiatry, rather than the courtroom variety. His patient is Barbara Rush, not long out of a mental hospital for trying to kill herself. There are signs that she has resumed that trait. Complicating her life are an ex-husband (David Janssen), a fiancée (Frank Overton) and some account in a book secreted in one of Mary Tyler Moore's gloves and it begins to gnaw on him.

slated mostly of ripping up the felt on a pool table. Another was a complicated sketch about a brain (played by Caesar) directing a sailor's romance. There was a long, silent argument to symphony music, and a hectic sketch about a man with some free tickets to a $50-a-plate dinner. None of it, alas, was very funny or even amusing. Caesar can do so much better and will, one hopes, in subsequent shows.

Income Total Of Americans Levelling Off

For First Time in 19 Months, Wages Fail to Go Higher

BY SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time in months, Americans as a whole don't have more spending money in their pockets than they had four weeks before.
This steadily increasing personal income total had been a comforting mainstay of an economy that had faltered a bit in other departments. The levelling off in spending money may help explain why retail sales also slipped unexpectedly. And it ties in with failure of employment to rise as hoped in many manufacturing industries.
The Commerce Department reports that personal income of individual Americans in September didn't rise above the August level.
Temporary Alarm
This is the first time in eight months it hadn't risen. In fact, in the 19 months since the bottom of the last recession personal income had climbed each month except July 1961 and January 1962, when it dipped.
The September levelling off of personal incomes may be just as temporary. And the annual rate of $445 billion is still at a record high. Many economists expect renewed increases this month and next, along with a pickup in retail trade, and perhaps better performance by some of the basic industries.
None minimizes the importance of personal income totals in bolstering if not boosting the economy. This is true both in its current performance and in making the right climate for future growth.
Wage Drop
The September faltering in personal incomes was laid to a drop in wage and salary payments, especially in manufacturing. Even government payrolls slipped, though increases in this field usually go on year in and year out.
Offsetting the wage and salary drop was an equal rise in income from dividends, interest payments and government benefit checks.
The manufacturing payroll drop-

Around Home
High "tropical" winds late Monday night may have accounted for the mysterious object which was tossed through a window at the Russell Sage dormitory at Lawrence College. Police said a large coconut shattered one of the dormitory windows.
Twirling Corps To be Featured In Publication
KAUKAUNA—Mrs. David Nagan, director and instructor for DeDe's Diplomats, a competitive drum and twirling corps, has received notice her group would be featured with pictures and a story in "The Drum Major," a national magazine.
The unit now consists of 17 twirlers and six drummers. Plans are under way to enlarge the group, the director said. New red and white uniforms have been made for members and these will be worn for the first time in two Saturday appearances.
The group will march in the Kaukauna Homecoming parade Saturday morning and present the halftime program for the Manitowoc Chiefs game Saturday night.

Little Chute Girl Gets Two Years Probation For Stealing $239
Miss Marlene Van Nuland, 19, 431 Grand Ave., Little Chute, has been placed on two years probation for theft of $239 from a drug store where she worked from June 1 to Aug. 16.
Miss Van Nuland pleaded guilty to the charge after she was arrested by Appleton police Aug. 20. She was released on payment of $4,000 bond.
Judge Gustave Keller, Outagamie County Court, Branch 2 judge, ordered Miss Van Nuland to make restitution and to pay all outstanding obligations she had acquired. She also was ordered to stay away from beer bars and taverns during her probation period.
The report on personal incomes is put forth as the best possible guess and reflects the seasonal changes in the general economy picture.

Young Hobby Club Enter Our Contest and Win A 'Draw-a-Cartoon' Outfit
BY CAPPY DICK
Five "Draw-a-Cartoon" outfits, each complete with an electric drawing desk and lamp, will be awarded as the national prize in today's easy puzzle contest. One will be given to each boy or girl whose contest entry is selected by the judges as one of the five neatest and most original received from the cities where this column is published.

What's the Boy Saying?
The "Draw-a-Cartoon" outfit, manufactured by Lakeside Toys, enables any youngster to create humorous characters of their own design, using the dozens of patterns for comical heads, eyes, ears and noses that are included in the set. Also there are animal and bird segments so funny zoo creatures can be drawn.
To try to win one of these five national awards you must first win a local prize in today's contest. 5 of these will be awarded to young contestants of the Appleton area. The local prizes will be packets containing five coins from foreign countries, enough to give any winner a good start as a coin collector. The local prizes will be awarded for the 5 correct puzzle solutions that are the neatest and most original in preparation.
The puzzle is easy to solve. All you have to do is unscramble the letters of the words being spoken by the boy on the right in the picture above. This will give you his answer to the question being asked by the boy on the left.
Next, clip out the picture. Paste it on paper or a postal card. Print the deciphered words beneath it. Also print your name, age and address. Decorate your entry in

Engineering Firm Studies Acoustics in Xavier Auditorium
A sound engineering firm is conducting a preliminary investigation of ways to improve the acoustical qualities of the Xavier High School auditorium.

said the aim of the investigation is to find the most effective manner to improve the acoustics at the least possible cost.
The auditorium had been used only for athletic events, but with the equipping of the stage it will be used for dramatic and musical programs. Acoustical provisions were not included in the original construction in order to keep costs down.

Hospital Walkaway Found in Appleton
A walkaway from the Winnebago State Hospital was picked up by Appleton police while she played a bowling game at a downtown Appleton tavern Monday night.
Police said the 34-year-old patient at first denied she had walked away from the hospital, but a search of her purse showed she had a card issued by the hospital. She was returned to the hospital by authorities Monday.
